

VETERROPT 1996

Weston College

1900

Weston College
of Arts and Sciences
and Theological Seminary
Weston, N. H.

Wesleyan College

Veterropt

1996

Macon, Georgia

Veterropt 1996

Page 4 - Green Knights

Page 11 - Pirates

Page 15 - Purple Knights

Page 21 -Golden Hearts

Memories

Page 26 - Green Knight Memories

Old Golden Hearts at Homecoming

Pirates hang out
in Jones

Page 33 - Pirates Memories

Page 44 - Purple Knight Memories

Page 57 - Golden Heart Memories

Page 87 - Life at Wesleyan

Page 96 - Wesleyan Clubs

Page 112 - Sports

Page 120 - STUNT!!

Page 130 - Editor's Page

Green Knights

Seniors - Class of 1996

Michelle Arnold - History

Terri Bagwell - Business Administration

Amy Benson - Studio Art

Elizabeth Bowling - Mathematics

Sharon Brim - Spanish and Math

Marcie Caraballo - Biology

Kristin Conley - Biology

Brittany Venessa Dixon - Biology

Preska Melissa English
Chemistry and Biology

Jennifer Finch -
Mathematics

Tanya Y. Finney - English with Secondary Certification

Jena Frazier - English

Jennifer Fussell
Psychology

Wendy Green - Biology

Beth Hodges - Studio Art

Lisa Hullender - English and History

Valerie Huron - Biology

S. Teraye Jefferson - Education

Joy Mastrangelo Kaczor
Mathematics

Ana Khoune - Biology

Liza Lagade - Psychology

Izzy Leaman
Communication

Denisse Lemos
International Business

Elizabeth N. Mathis English

Michelle McCluney
Mathematics

Susan McKeon - Biology

Laura Meyer
Communication

Beth Milstead
Communication

Aimeé Morris
Communication

Joy Moten
Business Administration

Sherry Neal - Biology

Tien Nguyen
Business Administration

Deborah Ott - Early Childhood
Education

Lisa M. Peppin
Business Administration

Corinna C. Pietruszynski
International Business

Heather Preuss - Early Childhood
Education

Marlo S. Ross-Christian Psychology

Ellen Scarborough Psychology

Rhonda Schell - English

ReVonda Seale - Business
Administration

Susan Selensky - Business Administration

Shawna D. Stewart
Business Administration

Megan Stockton - Biology

Megan E. Tideswell
Communication

Stacey Waldrop - Business
Administration

Kelli Watkins
Business Administration

Laura E. Weems
Early Childhood Education

Dahlia Wharton - Biology

Anna Wilkins - Math

Emily R. Wilson - Business
Administration

Katherine Worley
Chemistry

Pirates

Juniors - Class of 1997

Glenda Bengtson

Kendra Biggs

Denna R. Bradford

Tiffany J. Childress

Jena Forehand

Denise Gormley

Margaret Heuer

Beth Hitt

Julie Howell

Bobbi Hubbard

Joy Joyner

Wendy Lazzaro

Jennifer Leonard

Allison Mason

Stephanie Pate

Rhonda Pierce

Erin M. Popple

Shari Prestanski

Evelyn Rawcliffe

Jessica Salinas

Beth Stuermer

Jennifer Terry

Heather Thomas

Ursula Tyson

Purple Knights

Sophomores - Class of 1998

Marie-Asseline Achille

Sharon Agosto

Amanda Allen

Amelia Armstrong

Jeanne Barbee

Heather Batchelder

Kenithe Biggs

Dorothy Blun

Charlotte C. Butts

Laura Calhoun

Melinda Caspers

Erin Dallas

Donna David

Pamela Davis

Nikki Dillard

Elizabeth Dyer

Shannon Farley

Garen Fowler

Alanda Hermann

Christina Homs

Tori Houlberg

Julie Houston

Leigh Anne Howard

Tanya Irvin

Holly D. Kerr

Mary Ann Kroah

Karri Medley

Jessica Morgan

Laura Neff

Shannon O'Neill

Kela O'Neil Primus

Iesia Laurice Prince

Missy Ryan

Mandy Satterfield

Lynn Shaver

Kiera Sheedy

Jackie Slaton

Deshaun Smith

Maranda Tennent

Iyayi Uwa

Deborah C. Van Sky

Bianca M. Venuto

Wendy A. Walker

Jaime Wesley

Golden Hearts

First Years - Class of 1999

Caroline Adler

Jennifer Ali

Nichole Arnault

Yuki Azumi

Cammie Backus

Stacey Barney

Maleia Barry

Heather Beene

Amanda Benson

Amy Bodie

Latosha Bond

Amber Bowman

Sarah Brawner

Amanda Brown

Demetria D. Brown

Amy Byrd

Jessica A. Cain

Jennifer Cameron

KerryAnn Cobb

Christina Coté

Monica Crenshaw

Amy Elizabeth Daniels

Courtney Drake

Katy Durham

Charlie Jenie George

Jodi Henderson

Heather Hurt

Jessica Jarman

CandIce Lynn Johnson

Mary Lynn Johnson

Sandra Johnson

Jennifer Lee

Rachel Lycans

Marissa Maggio

Lucretia Manning

Amanda Marine

Sarah Marshall

Zahra McAllister

Virginia Mealling

Angela Morse

Nicole Nicholas

Daphne Ristau

Liza Sanden

Lisa Schweizer

Allison Serafin

Rosemary Anne Veal

Shawona Walker

Ursula Worth

Tinker Bell and her lost boys during Color Rush - Jena Frazier, Izzy Leman, and Val Collins

Valeret Collins - International Relations

When I came to Wesleyan, I really didn't know what to expect, but I had some idea of what I wanted. What I got was more than I ever dreamed. I found great friends and sisters, a place where I could be silly and still be accepted, and a door leading to a new life. I know that I can go anywhere and do anything because I learned to expect it from myself. I look back with fondness, but I look forward with all the hope and adventure that is my legacy from Wesleyan.

Val Collins and Jena Frazier giddy that we actually made it!

Izzy Leman and Mandy Smith stress after Spring Finals- a little Hi C Fruit Punch never hurt anyone.

Backstage at Goodnight Desdemona, Goodmorning Juliet - Rachel Viets, Allison Serafin, Jessica Akins, Izzy Leman, and me with the loud blue eye shadow.

Patrenice L. Guthrie
Biology

From the day I first stepped on Wesleyan's campus, I dreamed of being a senior. I was amazed at how quickly that dream came true. During my Wesleyan years, I gained some of the best friends I could ever ask for. Also, I gained the best big sister and the BEST little sisters that I never had. I may have left Wesleyan as a student, but Wesleyan will always remain a part of me. I can honestly say that those were the best four years of my life! I will always be a GK!!

My Favorite Senior Wesleyan Memories ...
 Being obnoxious Seniors; Group fearing of
 Dr. Dod; Study parties for M. Taylor exams;
 Senior Skip on the Big Red Boat; the sound of the Jones dorm ducks in the morning;
 Singing the Senior Song eight times a day;
 Our last Homecoming; My cheesy roommate and our dorky talk; Jones second floor
 porch; Our Little Purple Knight Sisters;
 CSA Executive Board gripe sessions; Late night gossip sessions; Choking on a hot dog in STUNT; Being a Green Knight.

Jennifer M. Jones

Business Administration/International Relations

Deidra West, Elizabeth Bowling, Marnie Morris, Melissa McDuffie - Senior Cruise

Elizabeth Bowling, Melissa McDuffie, Deidra West, and Marnie Morris- 1996 Baccalaureate

Melissa McDuffie

Kathy Worley, Melissa McDuffie - Senior Cruise

This is a picture of our "senior wall" on Jones second floor. Our wall calendar was filled with all kinds of exciting senior events and would-be road trips. We even had a Waffle House application for those worried about their employment futures! I wonder if they are hiring.

Stephanie
Miller

Psychology and Sociology

Senior Skip in the Bahamas: enjoying one of the many Champagne parties aboard the Big Red Boat. Back Row: Melissa English, Teraye Jefferson, Yehudi Self-Medlin, Laura Weems, Stacey Waldrop, Mandy Smith. Front Row: Terri Bagwell, Jennifer Jones, Liza Lagade, Dahlia Wharton

Yehudi introducing the Marker Ceremony Speaker, Robin Miller

Yehudi Self-Medlin

Chemistry

I remember ... Walks around the lake at sunset ... Hot chocolate, chips, and salsa in Melissa and Dahlia's room ... the "Twins" suiting together ... Entertaining Big Red Boat guests with Wesleyan cheers ... Late night pep rallies singing "Tired Old Seniors" at the top of our lungs ... Grumpy class meetings ...

Yehudi, Mandy Smith, and Melissa English relieving some stress by drying up a few mud puddles in front of Tate Hall. The mud-caked Trio paid a quick visit to Dr. Taylor to share the fun.

Megan Stockton, Mandy Smith, Yehudi Self-Medlin, and Val Collins in the traditional leg shot before Spring Dance

Mandy Smith

Religion

Amy Benson, Beth Milstead and myself would get together in Beth's room and sit on her chairs that folded out like mattresses, which we appropriately called the "Love Mat," order pizza from Papa John's, and watch TV or movies every night. On Thursdays we would always watch "Friends" and "ER."

Pirate Memories

Kara Bollmeier

Margaret Jeier Heuer, Suzy Tyson, and Carrie Herndon take a quick break from studying for finals to exchange Christmas gifts and enjoy holiday food and drink.

Carrie Herndon and Kara Bollmeier, dressed as jurors, pose for a quick photo before heading off to a Halloween Costume Party.

Sherry Boyd

My favorite memories: Meeting all of my little sisters!! Becoming close friends with Jody Gordon and Vanessa Sullivan. Stunt!! Spending time with friends. Homecoming pep rally with my little sisters for the first time.

G. G. Connelly

One of my favorite memories will always be Homecoming '95. The experience really summed up what Wesleyan is all about. Everyone was out for the fun, supporting one another, even those like me who had obviously never played soccer before. Soccer and mud should always go together. We all had a marvelous time. I think I spent more time in the mud than on my feet, and I was not alone. Winning the cup felt awesome, of course, but that is not what made the weekend so special. The memorable part was the sisterhood throughout all the events. Saturday morning before the game, our cubby mates had put a big banner up across the cubby opening for Amanda Allen and me. Donna David's and Jennifer Pierce's show of support for both a fellow PK and a Pirate is not unusual around here. In purple and red, the banner really hit home to me about the family of Wesleyan. The slow song our class sang at the pep rally says it all, "It's all about sisterhood, here at Wesleyan. It's a part of our hearts and our minds and our lives and our souls. Green and Red and Purple and Gold." Thank you to all my sisters for making the entire year one I'll treasure among my memories. I did not transfer to a new school; I was adopted into a family.

Brandy Conner

The best memory of '95-'96 was the basketball team. The Wesleyan Basketball team had a most memorable season. We surprised a lot of people on campus and off, but the biggest surprise was when we beat SCAD in overtime. They were ranked in the South and the underdog came and stole a victory from them. This year we were unstoppable, and we proved a lot, along with establishing friendships that will last a lifetime.

Jody Gordon

My memories from this year, when reminiscing, bring back so many wonderful thoughts. I can vividly remember when I met my wonderful roommate Vanessa Sullivan. It was like a dream come true, to finally meet someone that I was compatible with. From the moment we met until this present day, we have gotten along very well. Also, I can not leave out the other special friends that have touched my life, all in different ways: Jeana, Mary, Sherry, Stephanie, Jan, Ursula, Chris, Octavia, Emily, Shawana, Wynette, and others. Just being at Wesleyan College is an honor itself. I transferred in as a junior, and from day one everyone welcomed me with open arms. Therefore, all my recollections from this year are wonderful, there is nothing that I would take back. Having precious friends like I have, the ones I can laugh, cry, sing, and pray with, are the friends I want forever.

Carrie Herndon

Ask any of my friends and they would probably tell you that this picture is self explanatory, it's Carrie and The Saturn. Not only because I love the car but because I was always the driver. Which leads me to the second picture. It features me, Wendy Lazzaro, and Margaret Heuer. The three of us were at The Rookery celebrating the countdown to our Senior year. 1995-1996 was one of my best years at Wesleyan because I had great friends like Margaret and Wendy to share it with. I miss you guys!

Teresa Lawson

Some of my favorite memories of last year ... Suzanne Spooner and Elizabeth Mathis jumping on Suzanne's bed every afternoon before dinner to relieve stress ... The Pirates doing way too many car washes for Cancun money ... The Pirates winning Stunt Spirit Cup.

Evelyn E. Leatherman

I remember 1995-1996 as being a memorable year for my class, the Pirates of 1997. We celebrated together and cried together ... always holding on to the sisterhood we all felt deep down inside. One specific memory I have of last year is of my roommate and lifelong friend Erin Popple. One morning as she was getting ready for class, I watched as she scared herself by seeing her image in the mirror out of the corner of her eye. She screamed ... and then burst into laughter.

Christy L. McMillan

The memory from this year that I could never forget was the loving gift left in my room by three of my favorite residents, Amy-Chris Vinson, Shannon McGinley, and Carrie Walker. After a long night out, I entered my room to find an utter mess. EVERYTHING in my room was upside down, including my bookshelves and bed. There was enough toilet paper throughout the room to aid an entire country in their bathroom needs. I have to admit that I somewhat deserved a prank, but this was an unbelievable feat by three very brave freshmen. It was very memorable. I am still plotting revenge.

After
our v
Hear the f true
STU
all m great the S know frien neve
class

Sharon Brim's friends wanted to give her a birthday present that she would never forget. They all knew that Sharon's boyfriend, Dave, was in Seattle, Washington at the time and that she was always saying how much she missed him. So, as a surprise, Sharon's friends flew Dave from Seattle on the weekend of her birthday so he could take her to Benefit Ball. Sharon was presented with a big card signed by all of her friends announcing her present. After the surprise wore off, her friends helped her get ready for the ball. As you can tell by the picture, Sharon was beautiful, and she had a great time.

Masue Murata

My sweetest memory of the year 1995-96 was the graduation of Ling-horng Chuu, GK of 1996. She was my suitemate and best friend. The sad thing is that we do not know when we can meet again because she goes back home to Canada, and I will go back home to Japan after I graduate. But, I believe that she will be close to me and be my best friend forever.

Suzanne Spooner

Pirate Class Conquers The Cellar

One of the many things that the Pirate class does at Wesleyan is go to The Cellar. We arranged to have Karoke downtown a couple of nights second semester, and the Pirates flocked. We had a great time, and this picture is from the first night of Karoke at The Cellar. Everyone got up and sang at least one song, whether she wanted to or not. Our class has practically adopted Jimmy Buffet's, "Margaritaville" as one of our class mottoes, and when it was played that night at The Cellar, the Pirates stormed the stage. We sang that song so loud that I would not be surprised if someone still has hearing damage from that night.

Bandfest '96: A Great Time Before the Flood

This year was Wesleyan's third annual Bandfest, sponsored by the CSA. This all day event showcases Middle Georgia bands and the proceeds go to benefit Habitat for Humanity. Bands came from all over the state, and we even booked a national recording act, 3 lb. Thrill. It started out to be a great day with Macon's Hollywood Band opening but, as the band Room Full of Circles got halfway through its performance, it started to rain. Actually, it was more like a miniature flood. We had to stop Bandfest a little short this year; however, before the flood a terrific time was had by everyone.

Surprised Pirates Win the Spirit Cup

For our first two years at Wesleyan, the Pirate class was known as the class that never won anything. When we came in the fall of our Junior year, we decided to try a little harder and work more as a team. It paid off when we won quite a few awards, but the one I am the proudest of is the STUNT Spirit Cup. This is because it is not something you win by playing the hardest or giving the most money. This is something a class is given because of class spirit and class harmony. If you take a look at the picture, we were just a little surprised when they announced the Pirates as the STUNT Spirit Cup winners.

The Pirates are Tired Old Seniors, Finally!!

The absolute best thing about spring semester of your Junior year at Wesleyan is Move Up Banquet. This is where the Juniors sing the Senior song for the first time and officially become Seniors. It is a great source of hope and motivation for the Junior class to actually study for their spring semester final exams. This was a great day for the entire Pirate class and it was also the day we began to count down the days to our graduation date: May 3, 1997.

Vanessa Sullivan

I came here in the middle of the year, but just in that short time there were many memorable moments to last me for a lifetime. Most of them are friendships that were forged ... my wonderful roomie Jody Gordon; our fellow hall mates Sherry Boyd, Jena Forehand, Mary Mitchell, and Stephanie Pate; Carrie Roberts and Robin Fine (who I first met in a class and it moved on from there); and Laura Calhoun (another one originally met in a class); and many other students and teachers that were brought into my life. This was also the first time I began to be a participant in many Wesleyan traditions ... class songs, class cheers, class spirit, and most of all, STUNT. It was the first time I had heard of it and the first time I participated. It was much work, but it was also a very fulfilling experience. I plan to participate in many more memorable events and strengthen my friendships in the time I have left here at Wesleyan, the oldest and best ...

Maris Williams

1995-1996 ... my first year as a transfer student here at Wesleyan. The Pirate class made me feel welcome and helped me jump into this wacky world we call Wesleyan. I'll never forget choreographing for STUNT and seeing the look on everyone's face when they discovered, "yes, we really can dance!!" And my mind will never let me forget having to mix hair gel, glitter, and powder together and spreading it all over my face and arms to look like a ghost ... I think that was my initiation into this crazy land we call home!

Florencia Valle

I came to Wesleyan last year as a scholar of the Georgia Rotary Student Program. I loved it so much I fought to stay so I could be a Wesleyan graduate. Many people don't realize what they have because they are used to it, but as an international student I had the chance to compare and believe me, this experience will stay with me forever; I learned about friendship, support, generosity and real sisterhood. Look around you guys, and you'll see the people that will have a long lasting impact on your lives for better or for worse; cherish them because they make you better.

Homecoming Banquet - Pirates Jenee Meyers, Julie Cannon, Stephanie Pate, Sherry Boyd, Marisa Williams, Jena Forehand

Homecoming Dance - Purple Knights Tamalyn Jackson, Litza Banou and Kim Benoit

Steak at the Lake - International Students Florencia Valle, Sayako Nogiwa (Japan) and Yuki Azumi (Japan) and transfers Maria Nieves (GH) and Maris Williams (Pirate)

Rachel Viets

Benefit Ball with Tiffany Childress, Teraye, and a non-student

Teraye and I in front of a cannon at Point Park, Tennessee during Choir Tour - May 1996

Most of my memories contain my best friend, Teraye Jefferson (GK '96.) We went to Benefit Ball together, and she was in Wesleyannes while I was in Concert Choir, so we went on Spring Concert tour together with about 70 other girls. At Benefit Ball, I dressed in black and Teraye dressed in Renaissance Garb. She brought a male friend from elementary school (way back in the 80's — geesh that was long ago). We also brought an Internet friend from Australia, and a friend from Conyers, Georgia. The five of us had a blast together, taking pictures while lounging on the piano and dancing the tango. Afterward, we went to Denny's (where else?), met up with a guy friend from Macon, and played card games all night. While walking back to the cars, Teraye slipped on the ice (it was a COLD night) and got her Renaissance dress wet *giggle*. She'd kill me for mentioning that, but I've got nine lives.

Teraye and I at the Tennessee Aquarium

Rat 1995 with Daphne Ristau and Jessica Jarman after Flower March

At Dulles Airport in Washington, D.C. with members of my Holocaust Wesleyan Junior Seminar.

Choir tour was a lot of fun as well. We went to Tennessee and North Georgia. We had a busy afternoon at some fort in Tennessee. While we were there, we climbed a fort wall, sang "Yellow Submarine" with some English chaps, and bought some useless jewelry. We went to the Chattanooga Aquarium (which is HUGE), and took lots of pictures. Teraye was working with some third graders on a marine biology section, so she took pictures of fish. On tour, we also got to sing at the Grand Old Opry's new location and get lost on the back streets of Nashville after having a drink (or two) at the Hard Rock Café ... but that's another story.

Purple Knight Memories

Sadaf Ahmad

Sadaf Ahmad and Janet Fallon
take a breather from Wesleyan veg and watch movies.

Amy Anderson

I remember ... missing my Big Sister before she ever left
... spending long nights in the lab with frogs ... making
best friends ... "Oh, What a Knight!!"

Kim Benoit

This year was great! I can remember the outings with Tamalyn, Erin, and Litsa. We were crazy!! I remember my class working together in ways that made me proud to be a PK. I am not sure what else to say. It seems like forever ago, but it was only yesterday. RAT is something that I will NEVER forget!!!

Lisa
Canfield

What I remember most about 1995-96 are the lessons I learned about myself that I believe are applicable to everyone: FAITH, TRUST, COURAGE and STRENGTH. Truly all things are possible if you only believe. Common Ground was opened in June of '96 because of that. I learned most of those lessons by way of the good friends I have made here at Wesleyan. What I will take from here is not a piece of paper worth $80,000, but something that is worth much more. The knowledge I have gained about myself will take me greater places than my diploma. I am thankful for that. It was all worth it!

Lisa Bridges

My sophomore year was an incredible year for me. I seemed to always be running around going crazy with a million things to do. In the fall, I was on Homecoming Court which was a fabulous experience that I'll never forget. As May '96 drew closer I couldn't believe that I was almost through my second year of college, and in no time at all I would lose my big sister and gain little sisters. I became even more involved in my class which I didn't think was possible, but the PKs had a fabulous year together. Spiritually I grew closer to God which was a phenomenal and enlightening journey for me. I made many new friends (here's one for you basement crew)! This year was the year that I really solidified my close circle of friends. I would've never made it through without Jennifer (my twin), Melinda (my sanity), Pam (my partner in craziness), and Nartaya (my biology buddy). I think the memories that are most precious to me about my sophomore year are ones that are hard to put into words, they are more like feelings and emotions. 1995-96 is a collage of memories that all weave together creating one lasting impression that changed me for the rest of my life.

Cynthia Dawkins

The PKs really shined this year with our spirit!!!! One memory which will always stand out when we think back to this year is the beautiful big sister/little sister banquet held in the spring at Bealls 1860. The hardest thing to do this year was to watch our big sisters graduate and say goodbyes. We only have two years to go.

Wynette DiBartolo

My sophomore year was very exciting and full of change. I began to grow spiritually and intellectually. I will never forget it.

Laura Facey

HOMECOMING — OH WHAT A KNIGHT-last minute shopping- Amy my wonderful roomie! No more community bathrooms-how many suitemates??- Was that the toilet that flushed?-How much further to Taylor?-Getting "Plugged in" to Physio - not another frog!-Liza and the latest gossip at the Coliseum-STUNT with Pookie- Sue my wonderful big sis -I'll miss ya!

Janet Fallon enjoys an ice cream sundae with a friend in Baden-Baden, Germany

Janet Fallon and her family pose for a picture between ski runs while in Utah.

Janet Fallon

From Skiing in Park City, Utah to traveling and skiing in Europe, 1996 was never boring and filled with adventure

Jennifer Pierce

Color Rush-RAT-Beating Agnes Scott all three times in Volleyball-Roger Day-Two Vince Gill Concerts-The Greatest Friends in the World: Flo, Mel, Pam, Nart, Amanda, T, Duckie, Donna-the Basketball Team and Susan-the Braves-Ryan Klesko-Snow-STUNT-Softball as a Club Team-the IFs and the OFs-SAR and the Retreat at St. Simon's-Class Sports and SRC-Being Elected President of AKPsi-Softball Coaches Award-The Best Roomie Receiving Athlete of the Year, and me Receiving Wesleyan Spirit Award-Hooding My Wonderful Big Sister

Carrie Felguth

A Tribute to My Big Sis, Ellen Scarborough
 A woman of God, you were always there for me,
     through good times and bad —
 you are the Big Sister I never had.
 May God hold you near,
     my Big Sister dear!
 Love in Christ, Carrie

Tamalyn Jackson

All those who lived on Wortham first floor really bonded. The radiators were possessed and would clank, hiss, pop and otherwise make noise to keep us all awake. Sometimes the controls would break, and they either wouldn't work or they would try to replicate temperatures in the Sahara Desert. We would hear things go bump in the night, but we knew that no one was living above us. Beth, Kiera, Iesia, Carmee, Erin, and all the rest of us had the greatest time exchanging stories and trying to convince those on the "outside" of the weird happenings. We were the forgotten ones, and then they started renovating-no quiet and no laundry! It was the best living experience I've had on campus, and I will remember my Wortham "buddies" forever!

RAT was great, at least for the us PKs. My RATs Amanda and Sayako made me proud, and we all had fun!

For Fall Family Weekend the International Club really went all out on the Food Fest, with food from Latin America, Asia and Louisiana. The ten gallons of salsa and five bags of chips that Casa Maria donated could've lasted until we graduated.

That day it snowed was amazing. We all wished that classes could be canceled so we could play. Play we did. Everybody was out around the fountain. It was such a surprise.

Big Sister, Little Sister banquet was a fancy affair at Bealls 1860. It was a bittersweet moment as we all gathered to toast our big sisters. Later, at graduation, tears were in abundance over the realization that our "Great Green Knights" were leaving us.

Tamalyn Jackson
Litsa Banou, at
Kim Benoit
Homecoming 1984

Tamalyn Jackson, Kiera Shiedy, and Jessica Jarman on "Snow Day 1996"

Shannon V. House

I will always treasure the memories of the little things from my last year with my big sisters. My fondest memories are of Thursday nights with Anna, Wendy, Shelby, and I all sitting in Anna and Wendy's room watching "Friends," "Seinfeld," "Caroline in the City," and "ER" (we always used the 30 minutes "Single Guy" slot for doing homework). I cherish the countless nights spent in sleep-deprived peals of laughter. I have no idea what was so funny, but does it really matter? I'll never regret, nor forget, the afternoon spent founding the HWW (Hail Lorena!) and all of the other good times with everyone in Wortham. Can we ever forget the tampon talk? We Double mint Twins will love the Root beer Girls forever.

Hey Anna, why won't Shelby's screen come on? Why won't your mouse work? Is that a sock in your freezer?

Hey Wendy, why are there so many guys named Amn? Ever wonder how Russ is doing? Bought a Clydesdale with a gas problem yet?

Hey Shelby, Van who? When do I get to visit ShelbyWorld? Um, you are gonna share some of that catered stuff now aren't you?

Hey Tori, up for playing matchmaker for Anna? That's not Robitussin is it? When are we going to buy the tape of Unsolved Mysteries music?

Hey Erin, watched Seven lately? Burn rubber! Ok, I guess latex will do. If I give you a ride to Wendy's will you buy me dinner?

Hey Lynn, you up for Denny's? Yep, chicken fingers and nachos. Who's Rocky? Why am I sitting on a dwarf?

Hey Kenithe, what will we do without calc? You mean there is math past that? Why do we have those rocking chairs anyway? Certainly not so we can sit around and chat like a bunch of old ladies!

I love all of you, even those I didn't specifically address. This year is one that is very special to me, one that will always stay with me. If I need a laugh, I have one hidden in my heart. I can just pull out a memory and smile.

Carmée Kypriandes

My sophomore year was a learning experience. I was a member of BSU, and I took pride in it. The thing I am most proud of is being a part of the Wesleyannes. It was a good year.

Shelby Smith

Homecoming. 1995 Carrie Padian, Wendy Walker, Diane Curtis, and Shelby Smith. Things to remember: breaking social norms (go sit on her dress!), Mercer pictures, Shoney's and Strokin'.

Sarah Weeks

Sarah Weeks, Bianca Venuto, and Amity Bibler take time out before eating dinner with their dates before the Homecoming dance.

(Left to Right) Sarah, Shannon, and Amelia sing the PK / GK sister song during the Homecoming Banquet with their big sisters (in order) Jennifer, Sherry, and Kathy.

The Purple Knights cheer the Golden Hearts on as they teach their younger sisters how to be true Wesleyannes during R.A.T. weekend.

Sisters by Chance

Friends by Choice!

We were thrown together by chance, but we have stayed together by choice. Dena, Lora, Susan, Jennifer, Erin, Stacy, Brandy, and Rhonda. Not one of us is like the other, but we have found a common ground: our friendship. From road trips to room-to-room parties, we have journeyed, and sometimes stumbled, through our college years together. Not once have we ever been without someone to whom we could turn. We know that one day we will be forced to separate, but nothing can ever separate our hearts.

Golden Hearts

First year Memories

Kristina Anderson

The most fun I had this year would have to be my first college homecoming. I went with Odonia Ezell. It took us exactly four hours to get there. She had to pick her date up in Barnesville, Georgia, and we got really, REALLY lost. We had dinner at a Pizza Hut in Barnesville and then came back to Macon. Fortunately, we did FINALLY make it, and we had a blast.

Amanda Avery

I remember senior skip .... ahhhh ....yeah! I was rudely awakened by screaming and car horns. Since I had been disrupted from my rest, I searched for revenge. First, my Nookies and I gathered all the TP from the hall and threw it off the Person's breezeway. While we were on the breezeway, we exchanged swear words with the GKs. My roommate (Ashley Haymond) and I became so enraged that we threw rotten pumpkins off the breeze-way at the loud, obnoxious seniors. Then, I went down the stairs with a bucket of water and threw it at a trunk load of GKs. From that night on, I was referred to by the seniors as "water girl," and I referred to them as "Yehudi and the Blowfish."

Some of my Nookies gathering in front of our snow-painted door and Nita's infamous hearts

Audrey (everyone's favorite waitress at Denny's) giving me a big hug!

Mera, Nita, and I at Chili's before the Benefit Ball

Nook Quotes

"Hope you're hungry", "WHO does she THINK she is?!?!?!?", "Are they still chatting?", "Are you mad at me?", "I'm scared", "FAAAAATTTTTY, faaaaatty fooodds", "rurnt", "nairn", "He looks ruined!", "buh!", "Are you taking a shower?!?!? Who's coming over?", "Amanda, you ARE NOT wearing THAT out, are you?", "Hey .... do you have any condoms? There are none in the bathroom", "kisses", "Can I bum a pig?", "I love you guys!!!", "It smells like post-test-fiesta in here!", "Are y'all going to play soccer? .... No, we're going to play volleyball .... yeah! volleyball with shin-guards", "This coffee is as thick as mud!"

Other random memories ... naps with Nita ... all the birthday parties ... pumpkins ... chat lines ... all my ATO men over at Mercer (I was their Wesleyan sweetheart) ... the road trip with Ashley and Scott — (buh!) ... sleeping at the piano teacher's house ... Truet-McConnel college ... Helen ... post test fiesta ... the chairs Jodi and I stole and put on the breeze-way ... Flash and Stan ... Amy's stockings ... the Christmas decorations ... putting condoms on Nita's hearts outside of her door ... the snow-painted door with all our names ... Chrissers' snack mix (for those late nights with calculus) ... ramen tetrazini, open faced ramen sandwiches, shepard's ramen, ramen and cheese, etc., etc., etc. (this one is for me and you, Ra) ... Moldy bagels ... macaroni and cheese that is STILL in my pot (thanks Amy) ... China Delight ... late night talks on the breeze-way ... Waffle House ... late nights at Denny's ... Jenn's feet doormat ... the Snoop poster ... my condom advertisements ... remember those pictures we took Chris??? ... Wacky Jackie's dance ... doing the Mission Impossible to the bathroom in the middle of the night ... singing Romeo and Juliet in the shower ... chatting in the hall at all hours of the night ... random booty grabbings ... all our TPT yellow clothes ... Kroger in the middle of the night ... soccer ... Coach Christie ... working at the girl scout camp with Rachel and rear-ending our boss ... Walter the rain-stick ... the screaming hearts ... all the love ...

The sentimental part ...

We will always be Nookies ... forever. Each of you are different and special. I will never forget the laughter or the tears of our freshman year (oh, pardon me, first year). Even though our lives have and will take us in different directions, there will always be a place in my heart for each and every one of you: Angela (Ra), Ashley (the best roomie in the whole world), Chrissers (B lunch forever), Erica (Elrico), Brittany (the coolest RA around), Jenn (and your big booty), Mera (Merda, the scared one), Nita (Neeter Skeeter, always looking for the best in everything), Kimmers (the quiet one ... yeah, right!), Jodi (Yodi the surfer chick), Amy (late nights on the breeze-way with Bodie), Chrissy-O (the All-sweaty one), Stacey (the tasty one), Jackie (Wacky Jackie always putting voodoo spells on Daphne)

Richard and Miranda giving me kisses at Denny's

Amy and me in her room during May term after our trip to Milledgeville

Elizabeth Bridges

One of my favorite memories from this year is the only time when my roommate, Joy, and I replaced a light bulb. She put the light bulb in the socket and told me to flip the light switch on. I flipped on the switch, and all the lights died in the room. I walked outside, and all the hall lights were dead and the sirens were going off. Somebody came running down the hall and said that the whole campus was down. I turned to Joy and said that if there were two people who could turn off the whole campus using one small light bulb, it would just happen to be us!

Erica Collinsworth

The thing I remember most about my freshman year is how magical it felt. For the first time, I was treated as an adult. I got to express my opinions and, believe me, I did express them. I was triple-dosed with feminism everywhere I looked and that was new. Being at an all-girls school was a new experience, but I soon learned that friendships between females are some of the deepest, most rewarding relationships there are. I got the luck of having a terrific roomie - Chris Swafford - who loves me every day regardless of my mood or my big mouth.

I had a support group to get me through everything I had to adjust to being a freshman in college. Amy, Angela, Nita-Bear, Ashley, Amanda, Jodi, Chrissy-O, Stacey, Kim, Mera, Jenn, and Chris all loved me and helped me learn to love and be loved. They also taught me about what being a friend means - sticking by each other no matter what. My college experience has been touched by these people - I will never forget any of their smiling faces as long as I live.

We changed so much every day but our sisterhood will remain the same through it all. Wesleyan and my Nookies have made a permanent place in my heart forever.

Nookies: Don't forget the smoking on the breezeway, singing those great hits of the 80s at the tops of our lungs, pumpkins for the seniors, chat line men, the Indigo Girls (in all their glory), studying for Calculus and everything else, surprise birthday parties, our Christmas party where Angela cried because we loved her, B and her men, ghost stories at night, men and their immaturity, the formals, the laughs, the tears, the hugs, all of it. I love my Nookies with all my heart.

Kim Dang

Freshman Year, What a year ... so many memories where do I start? It's funny how far we have come, and freshman year was only the beginning ... there were countless nights when we sat up and talked all night, munched on snack foods while gabbing about everything and nothing at all ... "these are the days" gals when the years fly by ... all I can say is thank goodness for all of my friends ... what would I do without you guys? I don't know ... I don't want to find out ... you guys are the best friends I could ever ask for ... never forgotten will be the memories that have made my freshman year the best ... you guys rock my world ... what more can I say???

Stephanie
Daniels

Odon S.
Ezell

We didn't always study in the study parlor! Melissa Roberts, Michele McDuffie, and Amanda Benson.

Krissy Anderson, Dottie Whittington, Jennifer Rosado, and Odon S. Ezell
Who says we don't have dates?? Who needs men anyway?

Odon S. Ezell, Dottie, Krissy, and Jennifer paint the town once again! Girls just wanna have fun!! Spring Social here we come!

Jodi Gordon, Jennifer Hunt, Jennifur Rosado, and Vanessa Sullivan get ready for a fun filled pep rally around the fountain.

Jamie Lynn Gerber

Frog Goddess & Horsewoman/3 a.m. goofiness at Kroger/Jamie and Hebie's obsession with Denny's/Rich decorates Jen's forehead & nose/Road trips to Atlanta with the windows down/Fun at the barn (Jamie gets stomped)/Wench!/No swearing in front of the ketchup God/Jen Dunson is voted *the* woman/The gum ball machine ring collection/The Green Jello Incident (no comment)/I'm A Little Teapot & Itsy-Bitsy Spider (the sexy versions)

Dottie Whittington, Jennifur Rosado, and Odonia Ezell are ready for a night out on the town. Does anyone want to go with us???

Danielle Fleming

Laurie Glass

Tiffany Grayson

On registration day, my mom and auntie brought me to school. I was so depressed when they left me. I knew absolutely no one and felt all alone. My roommate, Annette Nelson, had a sister who attended Wesleyan, so they were together. I went to dinner alone. Then a friendly face emerged from the crowd and asked if she could sit with me. I will never forget Chrissy Maxwell. She was my first friend at Wesleyan.

I will never forget the weekend after Valentine's Day 1995. My roommate and I had an argument, and I was planning on going home. Then, it started snowing. Of course the trip was canceled, but I had to get away. So Demetria Brown and Kawana Printup invited me to go to Valdosta with them. We went there and went to Club 69. After that weekend, we became the best of friends. So I am thankful for the argument and snow because I would have never gotten close to my two friends.

One Friday activity was presented by Starstruck Studios (the "make your own video" company). I had so much fun. I did "I'm the Only Woman" by Mary J. Blige, and I was in Demetria Brown and Kawana Printup's video of "Whomp, There It Is" by Tag Team along with my roommate Annette Nelson. They asked us to join them. Demetria was hogging the spot light, but Annette was bumping Demetria to the back to let her face be seen. Then Chrissy Maxwell made a video of Mary J. Blige's "I'm going Down." She was so funny. She was acting like a crazy woman. At the end of the song, she really went down. She fell on the floor, and the crowd roared with laughter. I'll never forget it.

Met ... KP .... Tiffy ... phone calls .... Jermaine, Demetrius, Eric ... arguments with them .... talks about them .... 3:30 wake up calls .... running upstairs to my room P 303 to see the new videos .... Kilo's "Get This Party Started" .... Junior Mafia's "Get Money" .... Club 69 ... the Swifty down the street .... daiquiris .... us vs. them .... "Look at dem girls" .... J.O.E. (you know what I mean)

Ashley
Haymond

My first year in college- a time of change and growth. I would not have made it through without my wonderful friends in the Nook. We were thrown together by fate, or a very insightful admissions person, and we have been together since. I enjoyed the bawdy breezeway tales of my Nookies, delighted in our birthday bashes and holiday banquets, and learned just how wonderful friendships can be. Nita Bear, Manders, Kimmers, Ra, Bodie, El Rico, Chrissers, T, Jody, Merda, Jenn Jenn: I am incredibly thankful to each and every one of you for providing me with a safe and accepting place where I could become myself. We laughed and we cried, and you guys will always have a special place in my heart.

Nancy Hemingway

1995-96 was a special year for all the members of my class. We embarked on a journey known as collegiate life. We learned to live with other people, different people. We all learned about responsibility and priorities, as was reflected by the grades we received after that first oh-so-fun semester. We learned a lot about being women. I would never trade those moments spent in philosophical discussion on the porch of Banks, or the way we got dressed to the nines to go out to Liz Reeds or to a dance or social here at school. Just sitting around with the girls is an experience that I will never forget, and will not trade for any guy, even now and probably not ever. I think my first year at Wesleyan was so special and began a new era for so many of us. Friendships were formed and lessons were learned, and we all must go on.

Jennifer Lynn Hunt

What I Learned As A Golden Heart Freshman At Wesleyan ....

My big sister is as wonderful as I thought. A single could have so much work, and the fact that I enjoy doing most of it. I could laugh so much. I never knew I was capable of owning so much gold tacky stuff, and I'm proud of it. Vaseline is so very hard to get cleaned from under car door handles. Toilet Paper Capers for Newspaper, then toilet paper. Purple ribbon, purple ribbon everywhere. Cars can unroll themselves. 8 a.m. classes are an extremely bad idea, and should be considered sin. Lucy Coopers, Liz Reed's-No Fun. Saran wrap and rain are a messy combination. Satan has cheerleaders. Odie is great at getting my hair to tremendous heights. Closed study, did someone say closed study? We have more legs than a bucket o' chicken. True Blue, Madonna, and a choreographed dance, what fun. I will never be a professional bowler. Tango anyone? Private rooms are a blessing. Just when you thought it was safe to put on Blades. Enormous amounts of Burger King crowns, gold paint pens, and lots of sayings. Maleia plays the piano more beautifully than anyone else. Moonlight Sonata is a possibility for me. Jennifer Lynn and Odona added together equals OJ's Dance Club, with the bargain 50¢ time admission. Why don't you take a picture it will be you longer? Want a slumber party-No problem, slumber parties nightly at OJ's. Too Wong Foo. Cheap B rated horror flicks are worth all the effort it takes to watch. You're the King, You're the King. It's all like from Princess-P to the R to the N to the Cess. A lot of people to college for seven years (yeah doctors). Tommy Boy, yeah. Let it sizzle. Boom-Locka-Boom. Most important, I learned that I will always have not only great friends, great sisters. No matter what happens I will have a heart of gold. My heart of gold will always have a shade of purple, and green to brighten it. Golden Hearts are winners from the start. All Wesleyannes are winners from the start. Golden Hearts 1999.

Jeannette Jackson

I remember the comeback of Michael Jackson .... "I wanna rock with you", "Scream",
I remember Tina Turner impersonations .... "rolling on the river"

...

I remember bankhead bouncing, Just a Girl, Be my lover, I'm only happy when it rains .... all at Rivalries .... (before No Doubt blew up) ...

I remember ... singing ... "it's the first of the month ... (get up get up get up) cash your check and come on" .... Nycole Robertson, and Dawn .... Grambling vs Southern
-Nette

Monica Jenkins

My memories of last year are very inspiring. I met a lot of new people and began to work toward my future. I became a member of SAR and BSU. I also participated in BSA, YDG, Concert Choir, STUNT, and oh, I'll never forget that infamous trip to "THE MOUNTAIN" ... nevertheless ... Wesleyan is a nice place to be and I hope to have many more wonderful experiences here!

Ashley Jess

The Mountain ... The place that had the healthiest food in the world, the dirtiest cabins that smelled like mold, and the fruitiest games for "College Students" to play. But it was also the place where the Golden Hearts of 1999 bonded and found the true meaning of sisterhood. I will never forget that mountain experience where I lost 10 pounds and met so many friends all in the same weekend.

Lori Johnson

I would like to thank the basketball team and softball team for putting up with me and being so encouraging. I have many friends on this campus. You all are great!

-Lori Jo

Shayna Jordan

When I first arrived at Wesleyan, I was disappointed to find that I was living in Banks Hall. This was not the freshman dorm, in fact, it only had one floor of freshmen. My roommate and I had written and even called each other a few times over the summer, however, this didn't prepare me for our meeting. Valerie Harrell was wearing all black and was lying on black sheets, she had a string of skull lights over the headboard of the bed. I was scared, but we got used to each other. We became good friends and bonded with girls down the hall. Dana, Mary Lynn, Lisa, Rosie, Tracie, Bingle, Lisa, Nancy, Rachel, Heather, Nicole, Valerie, and I banded together and decided to crash the freshmen pizza party we were not invited to. We bonded on the porch, smoking cigarettes and telling stories.

The end of April was both a happy and a sad time. I was finished with my first year of college, and I had made so many wonderful friends, but I wasn't going to see them all summer. Valerie wasn't coming back, she was going to UTK. I was going to miss her a lot. I didn't want to leave my close knit group of friends, we were spread out all over the southeast. Warner Robins, Nashville, Brunswick, St. Mary's, Jacksonville, Gainesville, Douglas, Marietta, and Savannah. We talked over the summer, but I missed playing Charlie's Angels and reciting Beastie Boys' lyrics at any given time.

During finals, Valerie, Dana, Mary Lynn, Bingle and I played hopscotch and blew bubbles on the back porch of Banks Hall. We filled the sidewalk all the way down to the back entrance of the auditorium with inside jokes, pictures of each other, and tic-tac-toe. We made so much noise outside of the building that people came out onto the porches and asked us to hold it down.

Dana Karstensen

The Mountain

The Mountain. That name will never be erased from my memory. In fact, if I am ever diagnosed with any type of mentally degenerative disease, my memories of The Mountain will be the last to leave me. I was in the "Evolution of the Modern Vampire" FYS, so all of us in our cabin were a wee bit peculiar in the first place. Six of us, four from my FYS and two from another managed to "bond" out of boredom. Just imagine Marissa Maggio wearing clothing from Chuckie Cheese's, Valerie Harrell looking very "Gothic," Courtney Drake being pretty quiet with a few riffs of laughter, Sarah Marshall being the epitome of laid back, Amy Cain (my roommate) with probably the most positive attitude about the whole situation, and then myself ... the poster child for anal-retention. Over the course of the weekend, the six of us probably found out more about each other than any of us would like to remember. The one thing that stuck out, though, was that none of the other First Year Students really liked us at all. I think that this may have had something to do with the 101 extra verses to "Coast to Coast:" the most annoying cheer in the world. Now that I think about it, Pookie the Headless Bear wasn't exactly a crowd pleaser, either. No one was surprised when the upperclassmen began calling us the Brat Pack shortly after we returned to Wesleyan. To be perfectly honest, we all ended up having a lot of fun, but the best part was knowing that we'd never have to do it again.

Homecoming 1995

Have you ever been really bored, cold, and completely unsure of what the heck you were supposed to be doing in the first place? Well, that would describe Lisa Dowell, Shayna Jordan, and myself the 10 degree night the Golden Hearts had the honor of decorating Wesleyan College. We had the bright idea of putting bubble bath and Tide into the fountain, however, we didn't really count on having to stir the water up manually. The three of us trekked behind Jones to find fallen branches which would suffice as fountain stirrers. As we were walking back, it became evident that our branches were shaped much like, oh, bazookas and rifles. It was too easy, and we were long past coherence at this point. We spotted some fellow GHs in the vicinity of the fountain, and we took cover quickly. I dropped and rolled, positioning myself to fire my bazooka and claim my victims. Shayna and Lisa quickly took their positions as we laid siege on the fountain. Our prisoners were startled, and we claimed a victory. Okay, Tracie Porter was the only one out there who even noticed our maneuvers. It doesn't matter. We had a blast.

Tausha Kennedy

I remember when it was Halloween, and I didn't want to buy any candy (I forgot really) and my roommate suggested that we pretend we weren't there. I thought that might work, so I wrote "Gone For the Weekend" on the board. I got a guilty conscious, and erased the message, so then my roommate suggested that we not celebrate Halloween because she was a Jehovah Witness. Anyway, the children came by, and I'm hiding in the room in the dark with no candy. This little child came by with his mom and knocked on the door. Then the mother screamed, "DON'T KNOCK ON THAT DOOR!!!" and scurried down the hall to the next door.

Because of its notorious reputation, third floor Persons was a fun place to live, but every once in a while we did get really bored (and didn't want to study). So we had to get creative to entertain ourselves. Danielle Fleming, Laurie Glass, and I decided that we would cover our RA's door-so that when she got up in the morning she would have a tough time getting out. The first layer was all tape, then toilet paper, more tape, toilet paper and so on until we went through two rolls of paper!

Shannon McGinley

After STUNT last year, we had our traditional rally around the fountain. Because my birthday was coming up, a few of my friends thought they would be funny and throw me in early. They threw me in a pool — I hit the back on my leg on the way in, and I had to have two people help me upstairs. By the time I got to the third floor, my leg was swollen, and it was starting to turn purple. We called my mom and she met me at the emergency room. Nothing was broken, but I had a hematoma on the back of my calf, and I couldn't walk. STUNT on Saturday evening. I would say this has to be my most memorable moment, not only from how embarrassing my leg looked, but from the fact that one year later, I still have some of the bruise left!!!

For my birthday last year, Amy-Chris Vinson, Nicole Miller, Virginia Mealing, and Katie Robertson broke into my room and hung balloons from the ceiling and birthday signs all over the walls. Later that evening, we all met in my room, had a small party and then went to Whiskey River for the rest of the night!

Nicole Miller

Nancy, Nicole, and Lisa pose for a picture before a pep rally. We'll never forget our first year here at Wesleyan.

Out and about again, always finding something new and exciting to do, Amy-Chris and Nicole spend a weekend out at a lake house. We can't forget those glorious memories: out of gas, jello, outdoors, and company that we will never forget.

Look at those gorgeous girls getting ready to go out and party at Whiskey River! Virginia, Katie, Nicole, Shannon, Carrie, and Amy-Chris are going out to dance till they drop.

Spring Fling, but these girls never need an excuse to party. Nancy, Rachel, and Nicole always had their dancin' shoes ready.

This is where it all began. Amy-Chris and Nicole went dancing and made memories that would last forever.

Mera Mistry

Nook 95 Means: moldy bagels ... "I don't know about you guys, but uhhh ..." ... Lifestyles ... the breezeway ... fake snow ... Mr. Lovah, Lovah ... booty calls and stories ... showers once a week ... "who stole my slippers" ... Amy B's aerobic stretches ... Booty dancing ... Grease ... Ode to My family ... birthdays ... Chili's ... "Oh Soot!" ... car breakdowns ... chat line junkies ... room dance parties ... wacky Jackie ... Blondie (Manders) ... Merda ... Yoda ... Tasty ... Chrissers ... Allsweaty ... Ashy ... Kimmers ... Big Fat Jenn ... Brit ... Bodie ... Neeter Skeeter ... El Rico ... Angera ... Bandfest ... Ramen Noodles ... "Party" ... burps and farts ... Indian accents ... the Snoop poster ... Pat McCrotch ... the first attempt to go to Liz Reeds ... Mander's sex education books ... The Red Robe ... wacky dance ... "I'm the one that says ... Just grab em in the biscuits" ... holey jeans ... Calc ... "Oh, you got food down there?????" ... "I'm Scared!!!!" ... wooden shoes ... traveling in packs ... hallway bonding

Nita Mohanty

Top 10 best things about Nook '95 10. No showers for days on end ..... cause everybody smells. 9. Trips to Atlanta (many, many, many). 8. Wacky, Brit, Merda, Big Phat Jenny, El Rico, Chrissers, Tasty, Allsweaty, Angera, Neeter Skeeter, Kimmers, Manders, Ashy, Yoda, and Bodie!!!!!!!!!!!! 6. Breezeway Bonding (the snowed door, the cigarette collection, etc.) 5. Practical jokes (moldy bagels, underwear drawers, toothpaste, rolled hallways) 4. Group pictures look like Benetton commercials. 3. Birthdays and holidays (No one is forgotten.) 2. Someone's always got your back. (We can make fun of each other, but nobody else can.) 1. Everlasting love and friendship.

To My Nookies:

You guys have been some of the most wonderful friends a girl could ever ask for through all of your hugs, words of wisdom and endearment, and tears. With the help of each other, we have all emerged to become strong women with our hearts linked forever. Each of you has touched my heart in so many ways. The emotions I have felt for all of you and continue to feel, transcend anything that can be described by words. Never forget the times we shared ..... they will live in my memory forever, illuminating my thoughts for eternity. Hugs, Kisses, and Love Forever.

"I could fly higher than an eagle ..... You are the wind beneath my wings."
-Bette Midler

ACDC: I will never forget the Bonfire when we finally met after being all smiley to each other for weeks (I thought you were so nice) ..... and I made the mistake of calling you Amy as opposed to Amy-Chris. I'm sorry love. You are wonderful, and you totally live up to the title "Golden Heart." DDT ..... I vividly remember your awesome long flowered dress with the big fluorescent flowers, and how I saw you the first day of Calculus and who we both went to the wrong classroom. (I doubt you even remember that). I'll never forget the zebra lines on Halloween, you poor, sweet dear. And how I thought you had some of the most beautiful eyes in the world and how much I've ALWAYS admired your incredible combination of beauty, humility, and intelligence. Big kiss from me. Nicholita: mi chica bonita que trabaja en la esquina .... just kidding .... we've had some great conversations. I know that you used to laugh at me and my hair every day in Calculus so I will have to include that. Oh yeah, and how bout Dr. Crisp's class?? You are truly a very special girl with so many talents. (Maybe one day you can teach me to sing as beautifully as you do). I love you.

With Bok Soon, Goofy, and my friends

Sayako Nowiga

At International Club Fashion Show 1996, wearing Yukata, an informal Japanese traditional costume for summer.

I came to the United States for the first time in 1995 as an international student. Japan, especially my lovely city, Chofu-shi in Tokyo in which I lived, was the epitome of my world. I would like to write my memory of '95-'96 as a student from Japan.

1. My First Impression of the United States in 1995

Everything was much bigger!! Juice, popcorn, yards, and houses are bigger. The family-size chips in grocery stores were incredibly big.

2. My First Depression of the US

No trains in Macon! I grew up using trains and buses all the time, so it was sort of shocking.

3. My First Impressions of Wesleyan in 1995

Beautiful buildings and friendly people. My roommate, big sister, RA, and peer advisor all seemed very nice. Later on, I found they were indeed kind and friendly.

4. My First Depression at Wesleyan

My English. I couldn't speak or understand English. You might be able to understand my listening comprehension back then if you imagine yourself listening to Chinese or Arabic. That's what I felt.

5. The Greatest thing about Wesleyan '95-'96

Kind students and professors. I have to say thank you so much to too many people to write down here. You can't imagine how much your help meant to me. Doumo Arigato gozaimashita. (Thank you very much.)

With Bok Soon, at High Mountain in North Carolina during First Year Retreat 1995

Chrissy Olszweski

When I came to Wesleyan, I had no idea what to expect. The only thing I knew was that I left my family, friends, and all familiarity in Texas. However, I soon found the friendships I forged were greater and closer than any I had known in the years before. I will never forget the Fall of '95. The hardest thing was leaving my boyfriend Jonathan, as college pulled us into different directions. He was my best friend, and though he was in Colorado, I made new best friends here at school. Mohn - thanks for showing me what it is to be true. Your honesty, trust, and confidence will always be remembered. "Somewhere I have never traveled, gladly beyond any experience, your eyes have their silence." Thanks for everything. The '95 Nook made me laugh, challenged me, comforted me, inspired me. There are a few random things that I look back on with fondness and great appreciation: booty dancing (trying to at least), all nighters at Denny's, the infamous "Tootsie Roll" video, talking in the hall for hours, 8 / $1 ramen noodles, using Mera's coffee pot to cook everything, '80's nostalgia, MTV Party To Go, Chris crying at her birthday party, Stacey and I matching everyday, being addicted to chat lines, Stacey and Kim's "We Missed You Chrissy O." banner at the airport, watching Kim, the first of the Nookies, leave to go back home. "Food always cheers me up at times like these." - Stacey. Everyone of you: Angela, Jodi, Stacey (Tasty), Manders, Ashley, Chrissers, El Rico, Wacky Jackie, Britt, Bodie, Mera ("Go us!"), Big Phat Jenny, Nitters, Kimmers, and everyone else - thanks for a great year and lasting friendships, wherever our different roads may take us.

"What is friendship? One soul dwelling in two bodies." -Aristotle.

Here, Brandy Mohn and I are at the bottom of the waterfall at the Mountain. After the hike, it was a beautiful sight.

During the Cherry Blossom Festival, a lot of us went out to the hot air balloon display. The weather was beautiful, and we had a great time - especially flying kites with all the little kids.

Thanksgiving in Colorado with my baby doll.

I remember when we went to the mountain in September - everyone seemed to hate it, but I loved it. A bunch of us slept on top of a tower, and a little past midnight, Jodi Henderson stood up and screamed that she had turned 18. "I'm legal!" could probably be heard throughout the entire area.

One night I was extremely bored and woke Kim up and made her put on a slinky little dress. We paraded around the hall like we were either super models or prostitutes. It was a blast.

Chrissy O., Stacey Barney, Mera Mistry, and Jennifer Lee dressed as sunflowers for Color Rush. Aren't we adorable?

Tracie Porter

The most amazing thing to me about last year, and about college in general, was the people. I never realized how many "different people" you can meet in such a small place, or how fast many of these "different people" can become some of the greatest friends you'll ever have.

Kawana Printup

One of my favorite memories was the Christmas party that was held in the Nook. I remember going to the Waffle House on Friday and Saturday nights with the people from the Nook. I also enjoyed sharing my first year in college with my best friend, Demetria Brown, and I enjoyed meeting new people and friends.

Melissa Roberts

Before the tears came, everyone was smiling. My parents and I drove over from Columbus, Georgia early Sunday morning. They were taking their first child to college; I was leaving home. I moved into Persons 116 with Amanda Benson. We spent the morning moving my worldly possessions into the tiny cubicle. My parents ran around town picking up light bulbs and hooks, and remembering the location of the local Kroger and Wal-Mart in order to impart this knowledge to me. Meanwhile I was meeting my neighbors and my RA Kelli Watkins. I met my parents on the Quad just before I ran to my first meeting with my FYS. To my surprise, I cried. And not just those soft cloud like sprinkles, but harsh sobs. Then I turned around, and for the first of many times as an actual Wesleyanne I walked up the stairs of Tate Hall.

Uh-oh. I broke the lamp! It just goes to show you can take a West off campus, but you never know what's going to happen when she Allison Serafin holds the evidence as she tries to figure out how to fix the lamp she broke during a visit to Georgia Tech. Al can smile about it - never really liked it anyway.

Don't worry about opposition. Remember, a kite rises against the not with the wind." -Hamilton Wright Mable. The four of us really notice- all that much- that we were all really different. Somehow we aged to get beyond all the things that might have kept us from friends. We came from different homes, different towns, and all together different lifestyles. We met here, and forged a new way of living, shared things: the Waffle House (We love Patricia!), Thursday night at Liz Reed's (No smoking in the car. Can't you wait until we get there?), gotten animosities- I couldn't stand you at The Mountain. Together we were The Rainbow Coalition. Al's dad got a kick out of the fact that totally different girls: a New Yorker transported to Tampa, a Russian speaking Hispanic, a Southern Belle (Yea, he actually said that about me) and a prideful Texan, were able to become the best of friends. Hence, we dubbed us The Rainbow Coalition. We liked the name, and so it stuck. Gradually the rainbow was extended outside of Georgia. It once again shines over Texas and Florida as well. I miss you guys. I'll never forget any of you! Love, Mel.

Soccer chicks! What a season! I don't think I've ever played on a team that lost so much, but knew how to have such fun. On the field, we played our hardest- happily our hardest has improved. Yet, the most fun was learning how to play hard off the field as well. Michele and I had so much fun with Sherry. The upper class women sure knew where the guys were- Mercer frat parties, and they were kind enough to take us along for the ride.

Benefit Ball was an absolute blast. "Okay. So Amanda's doing Mel and Kat's nails; and Ursula will do hers." ... "Did you call the Green Jacket?" ... "What do you mean you forgot to buy hose? We have to go all the way back to the mall?" ... "Yes, I have plenty of time to get to Atlanta. Trust me, we'll be there on time." ... "No, sir. I don't want you to give me my first speeding ticket." "Let's dance." ... "That was fun."

Kendra Biggs is the greatest big sister. Kendra was always so helpful and kind to me my first few months at Wesleyan. As the Golden Heart freshman class president, I felt pretty lost at first. Senate meetings baffled me- parliamentary procedure- WHAT?! Kendra was always available to me. I'm awfully glad I got to choose such a special person to be my big sister.

I hate goodbyes. We packed our things into our cars, donned our sunglasses, and prepared for the drive home. We left our graffiti upon the Persons laundry room wall, walked around our empty rooms and stared sadly at the barren white walls. It was the last time we were at Wesleyan together. "You say you want to start something new, and it's breaking my heart that you're leaving, baby I'm grieving. But if you wanna leave take good care" -Cat Stevens. Kat-Mel-Al forever.

Jennifur Rosado

What a fun day! Odonia Ezell (a.k.a. Odie) and Jennifer Rosado (a.k.a. Fur) got their winter coats out and went to play in the snow. The snow didn't last long, but it sure was fun. Odie and Fur roommates Persons room 108. The memories will last forever! Love ya Fur

Odonia is having a blast away from school. Over break Odonia and Jennifer went to Columbus to get away from books and studying. Dancing with old friends is all they had in mind! (Jennifer is not pictured)

G.G. Connelley and Jennifer Rosado going to the Golden Hearts first pep rally. As all the Golden Hearts prepared for the pep rally (dressed in all yellow) they didn't know what was in store for them. About 15 minutes after the pep rally began, it ended with the invasion of the Purple Knights. I love my Big Sister! You are wonderful, thanks for taking me under your wing. You have gone above and beyond a Big Sister!

As the Golden Hearts got settled on campus they began to explore unknown territory. Melissa Roberts, Michael McDuffie, Jennifer Rosado, and Odonia Ezell started to explore the dorm and explore new friendships. Odonia took the pictures!

As the Golden Hearts got in the swing of things they prepared for more fun pep rallies with the Pirates. Jodi Gordon, Odonia Ezell, Jennifer Hunt, Jennifur Rosado, and Vanessa Sullivan got all dressed up and ready for a fun and exciting pep rally.

Joy Smith

Some of the most important and special memories I remember from last year involve my friends. I remember watching movies, chatting together until way early in the morning, and just hanging out together on weekends. I remember my friend, Jennifer, calling Food Max at two in the morning to see if they had a telephone she could buy, and I remember driving her to get it at two thirty in the morning. Taking people (Charlotte mainly) with me to the Saturn dealership for my car and getting involved in a Jerry Springer show while waiting. Lollipop will forever be etched in my mind (this makes sense to the people involved). For Jennifer, "Hey, I am black in a new kind of way!" I remember my roommate, Elizabeth (Betty), getting hit in the face with a toothbrush ... one she threw. It involved a revolving fan and a purple Crest toothbrush. The late night talks I had with my roommate will always be special to me. For Elizabeth, remember the possessed phone and singing computers? I will always remember my friends sticking with me through a very hard time. Great teachers, priceless friends, and wonderful times that I experienced during my freshman year will always remain with me in memory. I love Wesleyan!
Golden Hearts 1999!!!!!!

Kathryn Smith

Honorary members of the Brat Pack, but true Screaming hearts Kathryn Smith, Lisa Dowell, and Mary Lynn Johnson prepare themselves for the unexpected. Yellow, now being the favorite color of all the Golden Hearts, is sported by everyone as far as the eye can see.

Liz, Allison, Kathryn, and Amy-Chris all let off some steam by goofing off on first floor Persons before catching a flick and going to the Mystic Bean. Allison was a staunch republican from H-town who never gave in on anything — she was so hard to debate with! Liz never gave up a chance to make us laugh! Kathryn was the democrat who could never get in two words against Allison. Amy-Chris, no not Macey, not Stacy, not Ms. Chris just AC.

Freshmen Melissa Roberts, Kathryn Smith, and Allison Serafin, all decked out in their best yellow, get ready for a class basketball game. Although the Golden Hearts were not the champions this year, they played a great season. Kat•Mel•Al forever!

Freshmen Nita Mohanty, Amy Byrd, and Kathryn Smith return from R.A.T. council initiation at 3:00 in the morning. After a pep rally, where they had to "perform" for the old Purple Knight R.A.T. council, the new Golden Heart members were blindfolded and led off to become true R.A.T. council members.

The beginning of the Nook. Chris Swafford (on the floor), Stacey Barney, Amanda Avery, and Mera Mistry goof off in the hallway of second floor Persons. Amanda's little sister, Jessica, looks on as these girls start a bond of friendship that will last forever.

From sixth grade to college Mary Lynn Johnson and Kathryn Smith have been great friends. Boy how time flies. We will never make the mistake of going to the "Base" again, and we'll always be weary of strange guys who ask what time it is when they have on watch. Partying with our big sisters and learning how to cope on our own, away from our home and parents taught us how important sisterhood really is.

Christmas time in the Nook! Good food, presents, and most importantly friends! These gals and their wonderful RA, Brittany Dixon, partied and never broke a single rule! Gabfests in the breezeway till all hours of the night. Shall we mention the pumpkin?

Lachrisha Swafford

Trips to Atlanta; all night gab sessions in the hallway; crying fits when only my Nookies could cheer me up; fights that always ended in hugs; the mini-birthday parties when everyone stopped what they were doing to come even with 15 page papers due the next day; moldy bagels; Jodi's music; Amy's pots; Nita's hearts; Mera's farts; Jenn's booty dancin', Kim's laugh; Chrissy and Stacey and the glowin' computer reflecting off their mesmerized faces; Ashley trying to convert us all to Democrats; Angela and her stories; Amanda and HER booty dancing'; and of course Erica my roomie who always thought that because she made a living that she forgot how to live or that we forgot her: we never did baby. I love you guys so much. Some of you guys are gone and others will go but you will always be family to me. I love you guys.

Love,
Chrissers

Amy Chris Vinson

Shannon, Nicole, Amy-Chris, Michele, Nancy & Rachel at Spring Social.

We cannot tell the precise moment
when friendship is formed.
As in filling a vessel drop by drop,
there is at last a drop
which makes it run over;
so in a series of kindnesses
there is at last one which makes the heart
run over.

- James Boswell

Virginia Mealling, Katie Robertson, Nicole M. Shannon McGinley, Carrie Walker, Amy-C Vinson. Shannon's 19th Birthday Party Bash ly rocked our world!!! A little pre-party with ginia as bartender, "farmer boy" as the main attraction and getting down at Whiskey River "the" fellows. Although Virginia and Katie are no longer here we will always remember the last time we all partied together at Wesleyan as freshmen.

The way to love anything is to realize that it might be lost.
- Gilbert K. Chesterton

A2 The 4 of us smiling as big as we can the ON thing we remember is having FUN!!!!!!!!!!!!

Nita Mohanty & Amy-Chris on Spring Court together pose with their most-loving, sweetest smiles. We're really thinking about our dates .... possible life time mates? nairb & enal???

Our road will be smooth and untroubled
no matter what care life may send,
If we travel the pathway together,
and walk side by side with a friend.
- Michelle Samara

Spring Social beauties

Melissa, Amy-Chris, Michele, and Kat are "Diamonds in the Rough" posing in our costumes after producing our BIG TIME videos of "Wake me up before you go-go" and "You ought to know!!!!!!!" Although these videos have mysteriously disappeared I have a funny feeling they will resurface before we graduate!!!

"What is REAL?" asked the rabbit, "Does it happen all at once, like being wound up, or bit by bit?"

"It takes a long time. That's why it doesn't happen to people who break easily or have sharp edges, or have to be carefully kept. Generally, by the time you are REAL, most of your hair has been loved off, and your eyes drop out, and you get loose in the joints, and are shabby. But these things don't matter at all, because once you are REAL you can't be ugly, except to people who don't understand."

- the Velveteen Rabbit

Little did they know that they would soon become "B1, B2, & B3" the following year. Would we still be smiling as big if we knew??? Of course!!! Three girls who would grow into women by learning from the love they shared.

Thank You For Being A Friend
Traveled down the road and back again,
Your a friend and a confidant.
And if you threw a party,
And invited everyone you knew,
You would see ... the biggest gift
would be from me,
And the card attached would say,
"Thank You For Being A Friend"

- Theme from "The Golden Girls"

Carrie Walker

Katie Robertson, Shannon McGinley, and Carrie Walker are all smiles at Spring Social. These three had a fun evening of dancing, socializing, and more dancing.

Moments before the horn, these Hearts from the "Golden City" stop to pose for a picture. Days of painting yellow sunflowers and preparing costumes paid off for these Golden Hearts of '99.

Dottie Whittington

1995-1996, WHAT A YEAR. My first year in college! I came to find out that year what family and friends really mean. I found out that I really was as bad at sports as I thought, but I also found out that it does not matter in sisterhood. Sisterhood- for an only child that was a great learning experience for the year. To learn what it means to have a sister, to be a sister and to love a sister, even those who leave. I hope that the rest of my time at Wesleyan can begin to live up to all of the love, the learning, and the fun I experienced in my first year as a GOLDEN HEART, a true sister from the start.

Homecoming
Senior Skits

Valeret Collins,
Amy Benson,
Beth Milstead
and Mandy
Smith

Life at Wesleyan

Moving On
Up

Juniors Allison Mason,
D e n i s e
Gormley, and
J e n n i f e r
Leonard

Right: Dana Karstensen, Courtney Drake, Val Harrell, Marissa Maggio, Amy Cain, Sarah Marshall, and Pookie the Headless Bear take advantage of a Kodak moment at The Mountain in North Carolina.

Below: New Golden Hearts and their Big Sister Pirates have the opportunity to get to know each other during the Pirate/GH Tea Party.

Above: During the early stages of RAT, Odonia Ezell, Amanda Avery, and Jennifur Rosado, seem blissfully unaware of the horror that is soon to befall them.

Above Right: Michele McDuffie is initiated into next year's RAT Council by PK, Leigh Anne Howard.

Right: The sacrificial bonfire is lit and the first Golden Hearts ready themselves to be tossed into the flames for the good of their class.

The New Hearts on the Block

Left: Four person pileups are common, especially during RAT Council initiation night.

Below: Golden Hearts are forced by their Purple Knight captors to cheer during lunchtime.

Pookie!

Above: Nichole Nicholas shows off a talent which is sure to get her far in the real world...plugging up fountains with her butt.

Well, another year has passed and another group of Freshmen successfully transformed themselves from wide-eyed, innocent youths who were still reeling from Senior year in High School to independent, ready-for-anything women armed with S-hooks, wire, and enough quarters to satiate laundry needs for the next millennium. Together they braved dangerous temperature dips in the mountains of North Carolina, extended freshman orientation, and the horrors of cafeteria food. Together they shared laughter, tears, care-packages from home, and clothes (on the RARE occasions that the aforementioned laundry all came out of the washer a fetching shade of pink). Together they learned how to live in cramped spaces with complete strangers without pulling out uzis and playing the part of disgruntled postal workers. Together they survived their first college all-nighter and discovered that it wasn't as easy as it sounded. And together they realized how much they truly missed HOME.

So years from now, when the GHs reflect on their first year at Wesleyan, they will have plenty of memories (of places, friends, and experiences) forever etched into their minds and in their golden hearts.

The Gathering of the Tribes

And so it came to pass, another Homecoming under Wesleyan's belt. It was a gathering of the tribes as the four classes: The Green Knights, The Pirates, The Purple Knights, and The Golden Hearts, amassed at the Loggia to prove that, even after 160 years, the spirit of community and sisterhood lives on. There were loud, colorful costumes, brightly painted signs, and boisterous cheers. The first-year GHs, new to Homecoming traditions, were nonetheless swept away by the tide of school spirit that traveled through the crowd. The Green Knights entertained all with witty and humorous senior skits--taking jabs here and there at many Wesleyan institutions, even at a few professors (a task which may prove dangerous if the victim ever found out). They gathered together, like thieves in the night, bringing with them pom-poms, face paint, and anything else that can be found in the colors green, red, purple, and gold. And, even when the last figure stole back into the shadows, the air continued to pulsate with youth, vitality, sisterhood, and really good vibes.

Below: Green Knights Kathy Worley, Patrenice Guthrie, and Aimee Morris attempt the impossible--to get through one song without laughing (they didn't make it).

Above: Not to be outdone, the Golden Heart class shows true spirit in their first Wesleyan Homecoming.

Above right: Laura Calhoun sports the new addition to the PK fall line--feather masks.

Right: Lisa Hullender, Beth Hodges, and Laura Meyers try their hand at method acting during the Senior skits.

Left: The Pirates paint the town (or at least the Loggia) red with their spirited cheering.

Below: Do a little dance, make a little love, get down tonight...

Green Knights Marnie Morris and Elizabeth Bowling are gladly reunited with their Golden Heart sister of '95, Jenny Pozo at the Homecoming Banquet.

Anna Wilkins tries out a little bit of role playing by imitating Dr. Iskra. Luckily, he wasn't there.

Right: Last year's Golden Hearts leave the insanity and traffic snarls of the "real world" to return for one last Homecoming at their alma mater.
Below: I wonder when they're gonna serve the food because I AM KINDA HUNGRY . . .

Above: Lisa Bridges receives a heartfelt hug of congratulations.

Above Right: Golden Hearts and Pirates--Sisters Forever.

Right: After winning this year's color rush trophy, PK President Missy Ryan (in a show of solidarity) dedicates it to their GK big sisters.

The Homecoming Banquet: Food, Fun, and Surprises

Homecoming Banquet 1995 proved to be a great success. Voices, songs, and general mayhem reverberated and echoed off of Anderson Dining Hall's chandeliered high ceiling as classes sat down to a meal and to hear Homecoming winners announced. The meal-time crowd was even larger this time due to the fact that the Golden Heart class of 1994 returned home, bringing with them history, class songs, and a perspective on life outside the hallowed halls of Wesleyan. The Queen's crown was passed to Brittany Dixon and the Color Rush cup was given to the PKs for their celestial presentation on the soccer field.

Top Left: PK, GK and GH Homecoming Representatives Shannon Farley, Lisa Bridges, Amanda Benson, and Yuki Azumi (and their lovely escorts) await the announcement of Homecoming Queen.

Golden Heart Amanda Marine gets decked out for the Homecoming pep rally.

Above: Homecoming Queen '94, Jenny Pozo, crowns Brittany Dixon as Wesleyan's Homecoming Queen for 1995.

Christmas at Wesleyan

Like so many things in life, the Christmas season has two sides to it: a good side (filled with family, hearty meals, twinkling lights, and presents) and a bad side (filled with last minute shopping in crowded malls, annoying Christmas carols blaring over every store's loudspeakers, and the fruitcake that refuses to die). Christmas at Wesleyan brought around another strange sight--students running around like chickens with their heads cut off due to last minute finals cramming. Therefore, the Christmas Banquet and the last week before vacation brought a sigh of relief to every Wesleyanne. The goal of going home to their families seemed oh-so-much closer and the chance to have their professors serve them DINNER (ha HAH!) almost made up for the numerous all-night caffeine psychoses, the crying fits, and the non-veiled threats to roommates.

Below: Dr. Martin rolls in the lighted Baked Alaska as the Christmas Banquet finale.

Above: One of the tables eagerly awaits the chance to be waited on hand and foot by one of their professors.

Above right: "Hello, I'm Dr. Fatuzzo and I'll be your waiter this evening..."

Right: The Wesleyannes entertain students and guests in the Burden Parlor after the Banquet.

Left: Many students show off their love of the holidays by decorating their dorm room doors.

Below: Kiera Sheedy "boogies" down during the Washboard Band's performance.

Left: Santa (Dr. Baum) shows off his excellent throwing arm by hurling candy to the crowd (most escaped with only minor head and neck bruises).

Wesleyan Clubs

The Wesleyannes performed all over Georgia

The International Club Fashion Show

Making A Difference

Iyayi Uwa helps the Black Student Alliance celebrate Kwanzaa

Beth Milstead makes goody bags during exams for Mortar Board

CRC

Council On Religious Concerns

CRC is responsible for community service projects and campus religious services through the sponsoring of speakers, musical groups and performers on campus. CRC also sponsors one of the biggest events at Wesleyan: STUNT.

Front (L-R) Mary Mitchell, Treasurer; Sharon Brim, Vice President; Liza Lagade, President; Michelle McCluney, Secretary; Terri Bagwell, Executive STUNT Chair    Second Row: Shannon O'Neill, WCF Representative; Jena Forehand; Dottie Whittington; Jennifer Cameron; Ellen Scarborough; Jennifer Leonard, Executive STUNT Stage Manager    Back Row: Jennifer Lynn Hunt; Amanda Allen; Jamie Wesley; Emily Wilson; Anna Wilkins; Allison Mason, STUNT Committee Co-Chair
Not Pictured: Kathy Worley, STUNT Committee Chair

CJA

Council On Judicial Affairs

CJA oversees the judicial process of SGA and coordinates activities designed to support the Honor Code of Wesleyan. CJA sponsors Honor Week each fall to give each new student a chance to sign the Honor Pledge.

(L-R) Shelby Ann Smith; Melinda Caspers; Odonia Ezell; Kendra Biggs, Chancellor; Teresa Lawson; ReVonda Seale    Not pictured: Julie Cannon, Judicial Secretary; Rachel Viets, Judicial Clerk

SAR

Student Admission Representative

The Student Admissions Representative Program provides a unique experience for Wesleyan students to share their enthusiasm with prospective students and their parents. The duties of SAR include recruitment of prospective students, participation in college fairs, correspondence with students, parents, and counselors, and hosting students.

Front Row (L-R) Leigh Anne Howard; Sharon Brim; Stephanie Pate; Pam Davis; Dena Zeitouni; Mary Mitchell Second Row: Erin Popple; Laura Facey; Jackie Slaton; Melinda Caspers; Christina Homs; Stacy Reynolds; Jennifer Allen; Shannon O'Neill Third Row (sitting): Stephanie Miller, President; Elizabeth Bowling; Missy Ryan; Jennifer Pierce; Teresa Lawson, Hostessing Chair Standing (L-R) Evelyn Leatherman; Aimee Morris; Kathy Worley; Lynn Henderson, Sponsor; Susan Wilson, President Elect; Stacey Waldrop; Julie Houston Not Pictured: Lisa Bridges, Secretary; Kenithe Biggs

BSU

Baptist Student Union

The Baptist Student Union is a religious organization which gives students the opportunity to fellowship, participate in Bible studies, and lead mission projects in the community. In the fall, BSU attended the first Tri-state Convention in Birmingham, Alabama. BSU members have designed a T-shirt for the club and once again sold bunny baskets at Easter to raise money for missions.

Front (L-R) Jennifur Rosado; Susan Wilson; Ellen Scarborough; Carrie Felguth Middle (L-R) Odonia Ezell; Michelle McCluney; Jessica Morgan; Laura Facey Back (L-R) Jennifer Lynn Hunt; Jessica Jarman; Carmee Kypriandes; Neil Heath, advisor.

OCSL

Off-Campus Student League

OCSL coordinates activities and support for off-campus students while also representing these students in the student government.

Front (L-R) Beverly Chance-Rowell; Melinda Lynch; Mary Mathis Back (L-R) Beth Stuerman; ReVonda Seale, President; Denna Bradford; Michelle Almodovar, Chair Not Pictured: Angelia Curry, Vice-President; Ava Chambliss, Secretary/Treasurer

CSA

Council on Social Activities

The Council on Social Activities coordinates many of the programs that complement the social lives of Wesleyan Students. CSA sponsors Homecoming, Benefit Ball, and the Spring Social, as well as coffeehouse performers, comedians, theme parties, and mixers.

Front (L-R) Jackie Serbu, Advisor; Jena Frazier, Secretary; Jennifer Jones, President; Suzanne Spooner, Vice-President; Val Collins, Treasurer Second (L-R) Megan Tideswell; Iyayi Uwa; Dena Zeitouni; Del Lloyd; Deshaun Smith Back (L-R) Marlo Ross Christian; Jessica Salinas; Beth Stuerman; Denise Gormley; Nicole Miller; Jennifer Allen; Sarah Brawner

RA's

Resident Assistants

The RA's are a unique aspect of the Wesleyan community as they not only live in the residence halls with the students, but they are placed in an authoritative position by the Office of Student Housing. RA's are required to put on hall programs for the residents and to help keep the residents informed of safety procedures.

Front (L-R) Jackie Serbu, Director of Student Housing; Megan Stockton; Beth Hodges; Elizabeth Mathis
Back (L-R) Amy Benson; Christy McMillan; Tiffany J. Childress; Brittany V. Dixon

SRC

Student Recreation Council

The Student Recreation Council is responsible for providing recreational activities for the entire student body. They promote sportsmanship, sisterhood, class spirit, and competitiveness.

Front (L-R) Wendy Green, Secretary; Amanda Avery; Stephanie Pate; Lisa Hyman; Michele McDuffie; Virginia Mealling
Back (L-R) Jennifer Pierce; Susan Selensky, President; Jessica Akins; Laura Facey, Treasurer
Not Pictured: Lisa Bridges; Jeanette Jackson; Mandy Smith, Brandy Conner, Vice-President

CCM

Catholic Campus Ministry

CCM is sponsors service projects, weekly morning reflections, and on-campus masses. Membership is open to all interested students, faculty, and staff.

Front (L-R)Shelby Ann Smith; Carrie Felguth, Vice-President; Shari Prestanski, President;
Back (L-R)Heather Beene; Lisa Waterman, Secretary; Kiera Sheedy
Not Pictured: Missy Ryan; Laura Facey

WCF

Wesleyan Christian Fellowship

The Wesleyan Christian Fellowship sponsors Bible studies and weekly fellowship meetings for students. The club is non-denominational and is affiliated with Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship.

Front (L-R) Lisa Canfield; Kiera Sheedy; Kim Benoit Back (L-R)Shannon O'Neill; Iyayi Uwa; Wynette DiBartolo; Evelyn Leatherman; Carrie Felguth; Tamalyn Jackson

Tri-B

Beta Beta Beta

Tri Beta is a national academic honor society for individuals pursuing a degree in Biology.

Bottom (L-R)Melissa English, Secretary; Kristin Conley, President Top: Val Huron, Treasurer
Not Pictured:Sherry Neal, Historian; Wendy Green, Vice-President; Ron Toll, Advisor

PIG

Psychology Interest Group

The Psychology Interest Group is open to all students who are interested in Psychology.

(L-R) Erin Popple; Shelby Smith, President; Laura Calhoun, Treasurer
Not Pictured: Shannon O'Neill, Secretary; Kim Benoit, Vice President

AKP

Alpha Kappa Psi

Alpha Kappa Psi is a professional fraternity for students in the field of business. Chartered at Wesleyan in 1989, membership is based on scholarship, activities, and character.

Front (L-R) Iyayi Uwa; Melinda Caspers, Historian; Jessica Akins; Lora Tolley, Master of Rituals; Brandy Hayes, Alumni Secretary; Back (L-R) Christina Homs, Warden and Chaplain; Jennifer Pierce, Vice-President of Membership; Stacey Waldrop, President; Teresa Lawson, Treasurer; Grissel M. Lloyd, Public Relations Chair; Laura Calhoun, Vice-President of Administration

APΩ

Alpha Psi Omega

Alpha Psi Omega is a national honor society for students participating in theater work. To be elected to membership, the student must be a second semester junior and have proven that she has outstanding ability in theatrical activities.

Sitting Front (L-R) Suzanne Spooner, Chasity McWilliams; Val Collins; Back (L-R) Elizabeth "Izzy" Leaman, President; Megan Stockton; Beth Hodges, Historian; Standing/Diving (L-R) Ursula "Suzy" Tyson, Secretary; Laura Meyer, Vice-President; Not Pictured: Joy Masterangelo-Kaczor; Julia Matthews, Sponsor; Michael McKinney; Erin Popple

PC

Psi Chi

Psi Chi is a National Honor Society for Psychology students. Eligibility is determined by GPA and the number of psychology courses enrolled in or completed. Psi Chi strives to promote academics, social awareness, and community involvement.

(L-R) Amanda Allen, Vice-President; Ellen Scarborough, President; Shannon O'Neill, Secretary
Not Pictured: Shelby Smith; Kim Benoit; Laura Calhoun

Mortar Board

Mortar Board is a national senior honor society founded for the advancement of women. Membership is based on scholarship, leadership, and service, and is offered to a select group of rising seniors every spring. Mortar Board is one of the highest honors given on the Wesleyan Campus.

Front (L-R) Mandy Smith, Vice-President; Melissa English, President; Lisa Hullender; Yehudi Self-Medlin; Kristin Conley; Ellen Scarborough; Sharon Brim, Membership Chair; Back (L-R) Wendy Green; Anna Wilkins; Beth Milstead; Michelle McCluney; Susan Selensky; Stacey Waldrop; Aimee Morris; Terri Bagwell; Elizabeth Bowling; Kathy Worley

Wesleyan Ambassadors

The Wesleyan Student Ambassadors perform public relations functions for various college offices and academic departments. Their jobs range from serving at receptions to escorting campus visitors.

Front (L-R) Sharon Brim; Mary Mitchell; Shannon House Back (L-R) Leigh Anne Howard; Missy Ryan; Stephanie Pate; Dena Zeitouni; Jennifer Allen; Stacy Reynolds; Susan Wilson

Young Democrats

Young Democrats is an organization whose purpose is to enable students to be involved in the political process through involvement in local and national elections, via campaigning, phone banking, and other politically affiliated activities. Young Democrats provides students with a great opportunity to affirm their community's and county's freedoms, as well as make a positive impact on the political process.

(L-R) Monica Crenshaw, Treasurer; Diane Curtis, Secretary; Ashley Haymond, Vice President of Programs; Shawna Stewart, President Not Pictured: Julie Cannon, Vice President of Membership; Erin Dallas, Judicial Secretary

Communication Club

The Communication Club was organized in 1986 for the purpose of acquainting students with areas of communication not available in the regular classroom schedule. Activities include guest speakers, fields trips, discussions of book reviews, and reports from student internships.

Front (L-R) Beth Milstead; Laura Meyer; Elizabeth "Izzy" Leaman; Suzanne Spooner; Back (L-R) Stacey Waldrop; Tiffany J. Childress; Sarah Anderson; Cindy Buell, Sponsor; Megan Tideswell

FLAG

Friends, Lesbians, and Gays

Friends, Lesbians, and Gays was founded in 1995 to further the knowledge and understanding of all. Membership of this organization is open to all parties interested in the promotion of lesbian and gay rights.

Front (L-R) Mary Peckham, Advisor; Daphne Ristau, Secretary; Cammie Backus; Katherine Kingman, President; Liza Sanden, Treasurer; Back (L-R) Nicole Nicholas; Dale Howard; Lisa M. Schweizer

Peer Advisors

Peer advisors work with the first year students in their first year seminars. The Peer Advisors are ready to help the first years move in and get adjusted by directing traffic and answering questions.

Front (L-R) Aimee Morris; Kathy Worley; Melinda Caspers; Missy Ryan; Stephanie Pate; Middle (L-R) Laura Facey; Amy Anderson; Margaret Heuer; Mandy Smith; Back (L-R) Jessica Morgan; Lynn Shaver; Teresa Lawson; Stacey Waldrop; Leah Barkowskie; Lisa Bridges

The Pioneer

The Pioneer recognizes its responsibility to the student body to produce a publication based upon professional standards of accuracy, objectivity, and fair play. The newspaper strives to be the link that will bring all areas of student life together. In conjunction with this recognition, the staff feels compelled to voice opinions concerning vital college and community questions.

Front (L-R) Jen Cameron, Copy Editor; Lisa Hullender, Associate Editor; Beth Milstead, Editor
Back (L-R) Dotie Whittington, Entertainment Editor; Jennifer Gammage; Megan Tideswell; Jena Frazier
Not Pictured: Julie Cannon; Pam Davis; Julie Houston

Splinters

Splinters is an honorary organization for Sophomores based on academic average, character, responsibility, participation in recreational activities, and contribution to athletics and SRC. Splinters assists Intercollegiate and SRC events and perform service projects.

Front (L-R) Melinda Caspers; Lisa Bridges; Shelby Smith; Back (L-R) Jessica Akins; Jennifer Pierce, President; Laura Facey

English Society

The English Society was organized in 1987. Membership is open not only to English majors, but to all interested students. The Society sponsors speakers, projects, and field trips, as well as serving as a discussion forum for literary matters among other things.

(L-R) Michelle Arnold, President; Joy Smith; Heather Goodwin; Jennifer Gammage; Jennifer Cameron

Amnesty International

Founded at Wesleyan in 1993, Amnesty International is dedicated to protecting fundamental human rights.

(L-R) Laura Calhoun; Monica Crenshaw; Yehudi Self-Medlin, Vice-President; Cammie Backus, Secretary; Lisa M. Schweizer, Treasurer; Liza Sanden, President; Rachel Lycans, Urgent Action Coordinator; Tracie Porter

Debate

The Debate team is in its sixth year at Wesleyan. This year, the team participated in eight regional tournaments and advanced to the Nationals which were held in Long Beach, California. Katherine Mims Williams returned to coach the team.

(L-R) Jennifer Dunson; Yehudi Self-Medlin, Captain

Washboard Band

The Washboard band entertains on campus and frequently at off-campus functions. Donations received by the Band enable its members to go on an annual tour.

Front (L-R) Nichole Arnault; Odonia Ezell; Ellen Scarborough Back (L-R) Amanda E. Benson; Izzy Leaman, President; Kiera Sheedy Not Pictured: Julie Howell; Sherry Neal

Concert Choir

The Wesleyan Concert Choir is organized primarily for the purpose of promoting interest in choral singing. An annual tour, with concerts throughout Georgia and the Southeast, is a Concert Choir tradition.

Front (L-R) Mary Lynn Johnson; Carrie Felguth; Kenithe Biggs; Jodi Gordon; Heather Beene; Elizabeth Bridges; Carly Adler; Dena Zeitouni; Second (L-R) Lisa Dowell; Amanda Benson; KerryAnn Cobb; Monica Jenkins; Rhonda Gatlin; Amber Bowman; Third (L-R) Cherrie Llewellyn, Director; Katy Durham; Maleia Barry; Sarah Brawner; Carmee Kypriandes; Michelle McCluney; Candace Johnson; Jennifer Cameron; Back (L-R) Kiera Sheedy; Jessica Jarman; Jessica Morgan; Ursula Worth; Virginia Mealling; Ashley Jess; Lori Johnson; Jennifer Allen; Susan Wilson; Christina Cote.

Wesleyan Sports

The Volleyball Team returns from a winning away game

Karri Medley intently waits for the softball.

The Wesleyan Tennis Team

Without Sisterhood its only A Game

Donna David receives an award from Coach Mazza during the Sports Banquet

Mary Mitchell shows her spirit during class soccer

The Equestrian Team takes a break from training to trot around the lake

Left: Coach Mazza briefs the team on the next play during a time out.

Wesleyan Pioneers Slam the Competition

Late one Friday night, Wesleyan students gathered in the gym to await the introduction of the 1996 Wesleyan Pioneers Basketball team. They cheered and applauded each player as she graced the court with her smooth moves and winning attitude. The team practiced in the early hours of the each morning, developing not only basketball skills, but also leadership and teamwork ability. Friendship abounds in this tight group of athletes. Competing in over twenty games, these talented women held their own against some of the toughest college teams this side of the Mississippi. With the expertise of Coach Mazza and Coach Straub, the Wesleyan Pioneer basketball team represented Wesleyan's proud winning tradition.

Opponents 1995-96 Season

- University of the South
- Toccoa Falls
- Tennessee Temple
- Atlanta Christian
- Oglethorpe University
- Agnes Scott College
- Amherst College
- Wesley College
- Flagler College
- Hollins College
- Averett
- S.C.A.D.
- Bennett College
- Meredith College

Wesleyan Pioneers Basketball Team: Head Coach- Lori Mazza, Assistant Coach- Christy Straub; Top row: Jeanette Jackson, Lori Johnson; Front row: Brandy Conners, Jessica Akins, Karri Medley, Tammy Taylor, Donna David.

Left: OK...OK...Here's what we're going to do...

Below: The Wesleyan College Basketball players know that they can only achieve success together.

Above: You had better let go of that ball before we...

Above: Wesleyan shows that they can tower above the competition.

Left: You ain't getting past me honey!!!

Right: The Purple Knights are in a huddle and planning their next move...

The Green Knights and the Purple Knights Dazzle their Opponents on the Court

.....

Over the course of two weeks, the GKs and the PKs battled it out for the distinction of being the 1996 Class Basketball Champions and the 1996 Spirit Cup winners. Although these two sister classes did not receive both awards, they had a great time competing.

The competition was not without a loss of excitement as the GKs and PKs dazzled the court with their smooth moves and continuous two pointers. The GKs and PKs know that it is "all about sisterhood". These two classes proved that it takes more than talent (or height) to be a superstar on the basketball court.

Above: Quick...someone stop that ball!!!

Right: Reach...reach...

Right: Come here ball...you arn't going to get away from me this time!

Below: Two points.

Above: Who is open???

.....

Green Knights

Most Valuable Player: Denisse Lemos

Most Spirited Player: Liza Lagade

Purple Knights

Most Valuable Player: Lisa Canfield

Most Spirited Player: Lisa Bridges

.....

Green Knights: L-R Denisse Lemos, Susan Selensky, Liza Lagade, Michelle McCluney, Ellen Scarborough.

Purple Knights: L-R Charlotte Butts, Jennifer Pierce, Laura Calhoun, Lisa Bridges, Laura Facey, Pamela Davis, Lisa Hyman, and Melinda Caspers.

Right: Hey little PK, you want a piece of me do ya...huh?!!!

Pirates and Golden Hearts Soar to Victory!!!

In order for a basketball team to be successful, there has to be a certain level of determination and skill; but the most essential component needed for success is a high level of team spirit. The red hot Pirates lit up the court as they fired shot after shot. It was obvious that the Pirates were aiming for victory. After every game had been played and every basket had been scored, the Pirates claimed the title of 1996 SRC Class Basketball champions. The team with the largest participation was the first year class, the Golden Hearts. Although this was their first year as contenders in the class basketball competition, they quickly learned the ropes and held their own against their Wesleyan sisters. With the strength, determination, and love possessed by each team, the Pirates and Golden Hearts showed everyone that its all about sisterhood and fun.

Pirates

Class Basketball Champions!

MVP's: Beth Hitt

Laura Sims

Most Spirited:

Mary Mitchell

Suzanne Spooner

Golden Hearts

MVP: Chrissy Olszweski

Most Spirited:

Katheryn Smith

The competition covered to the champion Pirate team: Top row: Suzanne Spooner, Jena Forehand, Allison Mason, Sherry Boyd; Middle row: Stephanie Pate; Bottom row: Laura Sims, Beth Hitt, and Mary Mitchell.

Left: Golden Hearts reaked havoc across the court as they competed for the title of class basketball champions.

Below:
Stretch...two...three...four...

OK, Shawona. I'll distract her and you attack her from behind.

Left: Selena...who just called me???

Left: Loyal Pirate fans- sink or swim...we're here till the end!!!

GK STUNT

With the pressure of two previous STUNT cups, the GK class entered into the 1996 STUNT weeks. Showing that practice makes perfect, the GKs closed their final chapter of STUNT by bringing home the STUNT cup for the third year in a row.

Fry daddies, shake machines, and a broken cash register set the stage for the GK STUNT. It was opening night of Big Phils Burger Mill # 10,001. When the manager is knocked unconscious it is up to Burger Boy to save the day.

Will Big Phil's Burger Mill fulfill Phi Mu's requirements? Melissa McDuffie and Elizabeth Bowling try to decide.

Jennifer Jones exclaims "And my motivation is?", while Mayor, Sue McKinney, gives her a little squeeze of support.

Customer, Liza Ligade, hurries to get a hot pork fritter at Big Phil's Burger Mill.

Linus and other employees prepare to open the store. Pictured L-R: Jennifer Jones, Gena Frazier, Val Huron, Megan Stockton, Megan Tideswell, Val Collins, Kristen Conley, Anna Wilkins, and Kathy Worley.

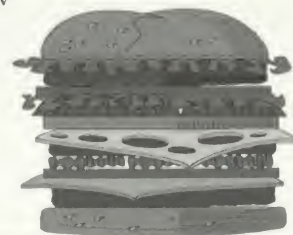

OH WHAT A KNIGHT!!!

Mayor, Sue McKinney, is in hog heav

"More importantly, what am I wearing?", cries Lucy, as Terae Jefferson and Megan Stockton help to remove the hamburger costume.

STUNT committee: Laura Myers, Beth Hodges, Amy Benson, Izzy Leaman, (Elizabeth Mathis not pictured), practice the STUNT Scot.

The Pirates are Aiming for Hollywood!

Top left: What can we say...Pirates are cool like that.

Top right: "...with a little bit of work, we'll get it right."

Middle left: It's sooo hard to find good help these days.

Middle right: Welcome to our happy home. Please be our guest.

Right: That's where the Pirates want to be...in the bright lights and fast lanes of Hollywood.

When everyone heard the words "Is that a chandelier I hear falling", they knew the Pirates had won the 1996 STUNT Spirit Cup. When the Pirate class went to the stage to receive the award they were bursting with unbelievable excitement. This honor was added to the list of victories that the Pirate class has achieved this year. On both Friday and Saturday nights, the Pirates taught the audience about the sinister nature of "Redemption 101" and the glamorous lights of Hollywood.

In the Pirate STUNT, an Oscar- hopeful director tries to complete the production of a movie that initially ended in tragedy. A hard working janitor tries to convince four loathsome ghosts to show four "talentless" actors how Hollywood really likes acting to be done. With a cast of wacky stage crew and assistants, they all hope to complete the production before tragedy strikes again.

Left: The Pirate STUNT committee sport the new styles in movie apparel.

HOORAY FOR HOLLYWOOD!!!

Above: Don't cry, sweet ladies, young actors these days just don't have our knack for acting.

Left: How long do we have to stand like this- my arms are beginning to hurt.

PKs are True "Island Women"

The PKs created their own "Island World" for STUNT. With an extensive cast of gambling men, independent women, and wary islanders, the PKs showed what happens when a successful gambling shark comes to town. Tragedy struck when the women of Wellington, tired of their gambling, no good husbands, decided to take to the seas and find a new place to live—their very own "Island World." Upon their arrival, they find that they are not alone. They must decide whether or not to live with a group of male islanders or cast them away with the long-forgotten Wellington men.

Right: You can come a little closer Pam, we don't bite...promise.

Above: "Place your bets, place your bets, put your luck to the test..."

Above right: "Why'd you have to bet me, Richard? Of all the things that you had to bet, why did you bet ME!!?"

Right: PKs show how much fun it is to live in their "Island World".

Left: Girl...you had better give me back my Pookie before I have to hurt you!

Below: Now you just wait a minute there little missy.

Above: When can we put this thing down- because its heavy!

Left: You know Laura...you should really do something about that mustache.

Below: Miles (Jasmyn Jones) and Lois (Nancy Hemingway) are planning out the big Christmas sale.

Right: Sally (Kathryn Smith) becomes the Golden Heart mascot.

Above: One of the dangers of Santa's (Tracie Porter) job is harassment from bratty kids.

Above right: Committee members, Liza Sanden and Val Harrell, rush the stage in a frenzied state. Savor the emotion!

Right: Torment and more torment.

"Christmas Chaos" for the Golden Hearts

Bratty children, Black Pete, a spandex clad Mrs. Claus, narcoleptic security guards, and a scandal--a typical Christmas shopping scene, right? The first year students encompassed all of the above and more into a hectic production punctuated by witty one-liners and acrobatic dance numbers. And, although the GH's didn't walk away with the Cup this year, they succeeded in providing a humorous opening to this year's STUNT.

Above left: The GH cast puts their all into the finale.

Left: Mrs. Claus (Lisa Dowell) and the Sugar Plum Fairy (Mary Lynn Johnson) show their talents at both singing and robbing stores.

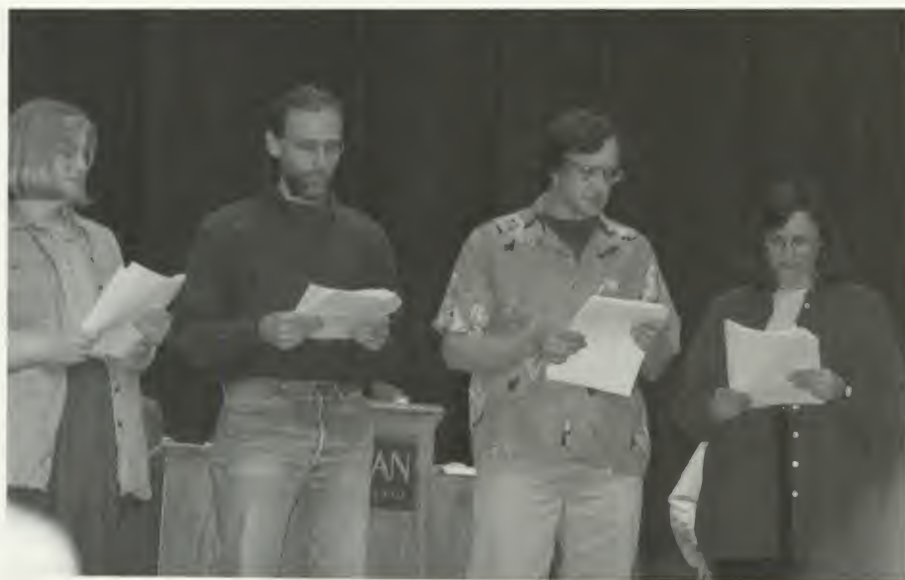

Above: Committee members, Rosie Veal, Katie Robertson, and Jamie Rutledge, enter fresh from shopping.

Hey, the Faculty DOES have a sense of Humor!

This year's STUNT audience thought that they were in for a bit of a nostalgic road trip at the start of the Faculty Follies, considering it began the exact same way as last year's. But the professors managed to allude all by including one completely new element to the performance...the wonderfully choreographed pie fight. Even students infamous for falling dead asleep the moment they catch a glimpse of their professor were mesmerized by the action taking place on stage. And, as the whipped cream flew, the Faculty again managed to pull it off. Now, if they'd only learn to memorize their lines like the rest of us...

Below: Drs. Fatuzzo and Rakestraw in their very own Battle of the Bands.

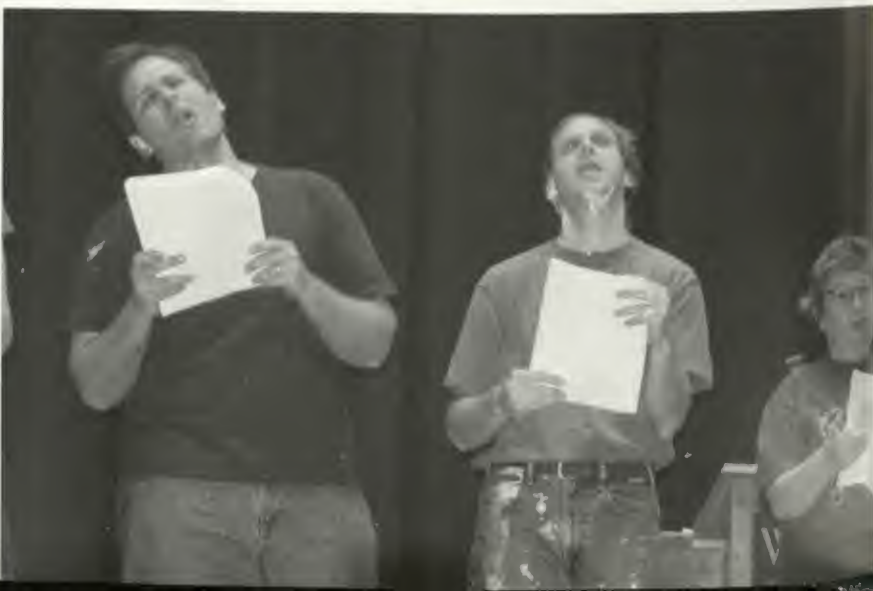

Above: Drs. Oost, Rakestraw, Peterson, and Hollis complain about how their students' lives have been overrun by STUNT.

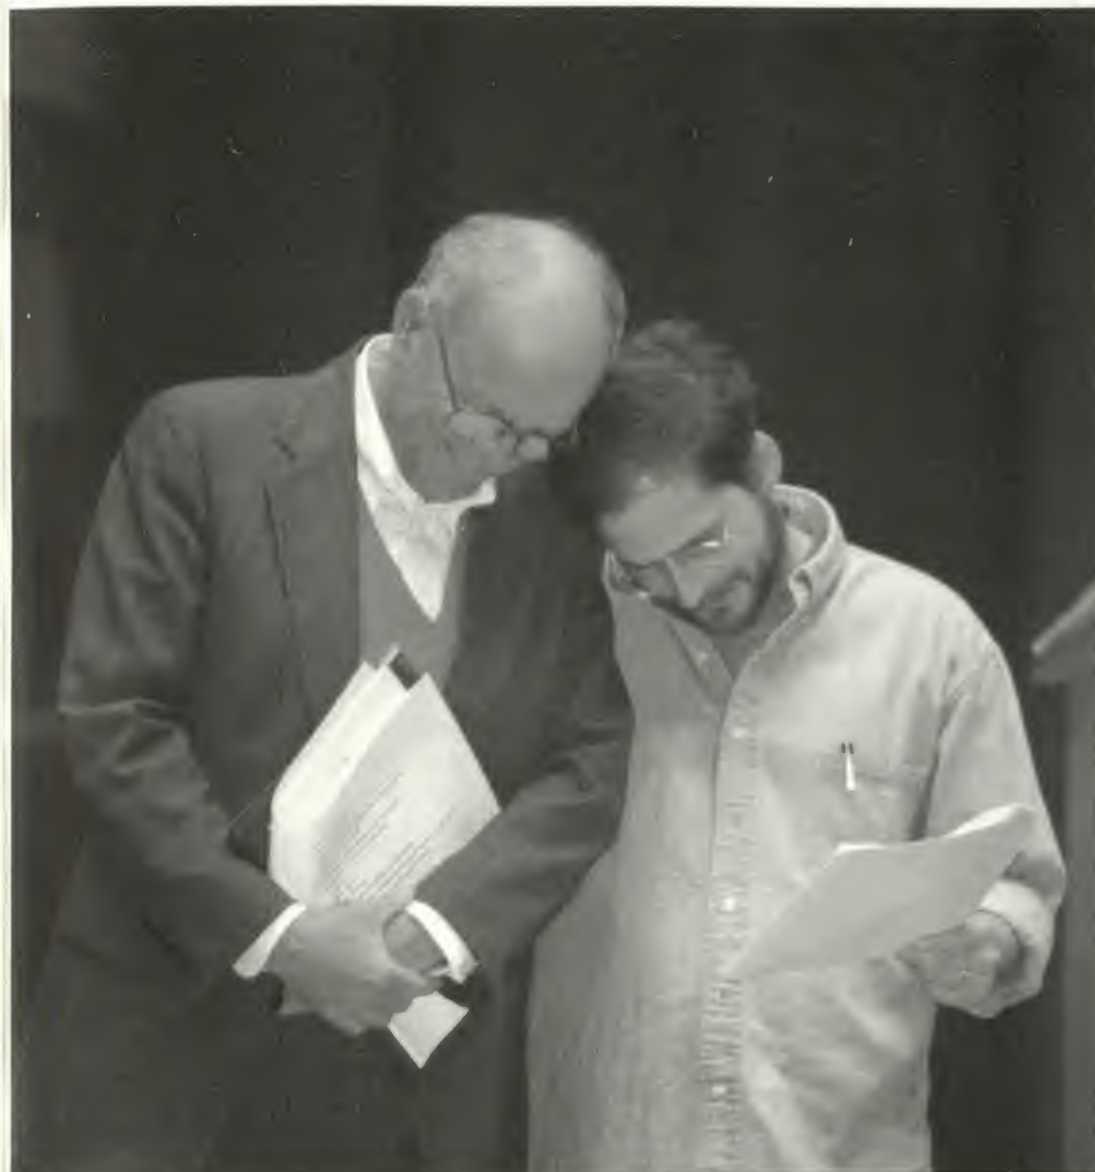

Above right: The pie fight claims Dr. Rhoades as one of its first victims.

Right: Dr. Martin and Dr. Fatuzzo show battle scars. Dr. Eidelberg however, escaped relatively unharmed.

Left: It's a touching STUNT moment as President Ackerman and Dr. Rowan share in a bonding experience.

Below left: President Ackerman at the podium.

Below: Administration and Faculty members show off their lovely singing voices.

Editor's Page

The 1995-96 Vetteropt is a departure from previous years. We used student pictures and memories to give a personal, in depth look at life on Wesleyan's campus. This is what really went on this year. I would like to thank everyone who contributed to the 1995-96 Vetteropt, especially Erica Collinsworth, Carrie Walker, Chrissy Olszweski, Nita Mohanty, Amy-Chris Vinson, and Jennifer Dunson.

Sincerely,
Ashley Haymond

Golden Hearts ...
Winners From the Start!

Walsworth Publishing Company

306 North Kansas Avenue / Marceline, Missouri 64658 USA

Editor's Page

It is a pleasure to have the opportunity to share with you the latest news and information from the world of education. I hope you will find this page a valuable resource for your professional development and for the advancement of our field.

Golden Hounds
Winners From the State

